Romney Makes 3 Trips To Scene of Disaster

A tornado ripped down and left a swath five miles long and two miles wide through Chesterfield Township Friday—and within hours Bloomfield Hills resident Lee George W. Romney was on the scene.

Ten persons lost their lives in the storm that devastated the Anchor Bay area in Montcoy Township. It reduced buildings, overturned trucks, and flattened trees. Romney, who leaves Bloomfield Hills for his vacation home in Kewaunee, Wis., was told that a $5 million insurance claim was estimated in the area. All Romney Group made three trips down the chain of events. He, Monday, called on the police force in Anchor Bay.
