League Meets at Kingsley

Members of West Bloomfield League of Women Voters held their annual business meeting and luncheon recently at Kingsley Inn, with Mrs. George H. Huber (right) the guest speaker. A past president of the Birmingham League of Women Voters, Mrs. Huber is now on the State Board in charge of State Issues, Public Welfare. Preventing hoarse she had time for conversation with Mrs. Jack Evers, president of the West Bloomfield League.

UF Initiates New Projects For Women

A new slate of new projects are giving the United Fund Women's Organization, a new look. Several local women were on hand to greet guests at the cornerstone May 15, when the new building was unveiled at the St. Elizabeth's Center.

Among those were Mrs. N. Howard Gruen of Bloomfield Hills, president of TEFWA, and Mrs. John W. Bunting of Birmingham, treasurer.

The cornerstone ceremony was held May 15 at St. Elizabeth's Center in Birmingham. The center is on the site of the former Sacred Heart of Jesus Church, and the dedication was made possible through the generosity of the late Dr. Robert N. Green of Bloomfield Hills, who was also on hand.

THE WRAP-UP

The League was proud of the new landmarks in its history, and of its continued growth. The organization continues to be active and continues to be involved in many community projects.
