Innerfahl Evening Marks Anniversary

By MARTI CAHN

Mr. and Mrs. Edward K. Terry began the celebration of their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary as a couple by giving to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodin in Birmingham, host of their fourties, with dinner and dancing at Oak- hill Country Club.)

Others in the party were Mr.

Taking the 'Grand Tour'

Mrs. Arthur M. Moore (left), and Mrs. Homer Sale (right), know much about the European tour could be any more important than the Planned Parenthood House-Party scheduled for today in Birmingham and Bloomfield. The banquet will be among the money-raising projects of the group for the war effort.

There are at least fifty of them, all of them in the castle.

The banquet is a way of paying tribute to the wife of the Governor of Georgia.

Just one of the many hundreds of Early American items of interest to be seen in our displays and galleries.
