Vows Given
At Air Base
In South
A wedding ceremony in the chapel of Grand Air Force Base, Sacramento, resulted in the marriage of Capt. Harold L. Jones, 37, to Miss Margaret E. C. Jones, 21, both of this city. The wedding was performed by Rev. Willard J. Jones, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city. The bride's father is an employee of the B. F. Goodrich Co. The honeymoon will be in Hawaii, the couple being stationed there. Rev. Willard J. Jones, pastor of the First Methodist Church of this city, married them.

Honor Bride-to-Be With Linen Shower
Mrs. Andrew L. Blose gave a linen shower for her daughter, Miss Hilda Blose, 23, who will be married to Mr. George W. Blose, 25, both of this city. The shower took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Blose, 422 W. Third St., and was attended by members of the Blose family and friends. The shower was held to celebrate the upcoming wedding, which is scheduled for next month. The couple will live in Detroit.

BLOOMFIELD NORTH
"Famous Lovers' Theme Of Anniversary Party"
By GLORES JONES
MA 3-2377
Finding the party, "Famous Lovers," among Romeo and Juliet, Antony and Cleopatra and others, was a pleasant pleasant surprise. The party was attended by 80 people. The party was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. G. L. Homer, who are very well known in the area. The party was held at the Homer home, 406 W. Second St., and was a great success.

Time-Out in the Sun
During a recent visit to Fair 65 in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Shaw of Troy Township, Rooming House, took a break from the golf course for a less strenuous kind of exercise—wading and swimming.

Neighborhood Notes
From Peggy
By MRS. L. F. HAMILTON

Neighbors...We need to know the names of new neighbors and tenants in our neighborhood. The parties are pleased to welcome the family of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kenton, 4500 Orchard, to our neighborhood. Mrs. Kenton is the former Miss June Anders of Royal Oak.

Miss Janet Chaffee, who had been ill, is now quite well and about. She is looking forward to the springtime and to her husband's return from his army service.

Mrs. Fern Holcomb, who has been ill for some time, is now recovering and looking forward to the warm weather. She and her husband are planning to take a trip around the world and are shopping tirelessly in Detroit to fill their suitcases with foreign clothes.

Mrs. Wunp in Council, at 123 E., has a new baby girl, whom she named Mary E. and whose father is a sergeant in the Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDonald, who have been away for some time, are now back in town and looking forward to the spring weather.

Mrs. William Walls, who has been ill for some time, is now recovering and looking forward to the warm weather. She and her husband are planning to take a trip around the world and are shopping tirelessly in Detroit to fill their suitcases with foreign clothes.

Mrs. W. L. Johnson, 1904 Maple, has a new baby boy, whom she named William E. and whose father is a sergeant in the Navy.
