Proposed College
Assured Support
The idea of establishing the proposed Oakland County Community College will be taken up at the June 14 school session, according to R. C. Smith, president of the school. As a result of the meeting last week, the proposal was made that a resolution be passed that the college should be allowed to go into operation. The resolution was approved and signed by the governor.

The meeting was attended by the governor and the president of the school. The resolution was approved and signed by the governor.

A section in the community proposes to support the college by the creation of a non-profit board of trustees.

Eye Opening Seminar
The seminar will emphasize practical instruction in marketing, research, creativity, media and accounting. It will be given by well-known advertising executives.
