Radio Series Wins Award For WDET

The radio series, “Michigan’s legacies,” which was a co-production of the University of Michigan and The Henry Ford, received two deaths. IN THE CIVIL WAR” won the “Best Newcomer for the Radio Award,” and “WASTED YEARS” won the “Best Long Form” award. The series was produced by the University of Michigan and The Henry Ford.

Paul J. Brennan, WDET, said, “In the last few years, we’ve been very proud of the work we’ve done on ‘Payton’s Mind’ and ‘The 50s: A New American Century.’ We’ve been able to reach a wide audience with our programming and we’re looking forward to the future.”

The phone keeps ringing at the Village Bookshelf, with bounteous thank- yous for the line asking, “Do you have a copy of ‘In His Own Write’?”

The book was temporarily sold out over the week end, disappointed teenagers were told. But Bookshelf owner Eliza Marie Blake spent months checking into the backgrounds of famous American writers. She discovered that an impressive list of them were born or lived in Michigan. Now, she’s displaying them as a part of the line all about during Michigan Week.

SHE BROUGHT the display to the Theta Sigma Phi Book Club and nearly everyone in the audience who saw it came to Bookshelf to order copies of two of the books featured: “In His Own Write,” by John Lennon, who is labeled as “The Writing Beatle.”

What we really want to tell you about is the Village Bookshelf’s exhibit of Wolverines writers. Eliza Marie Blake spent months checking into the backgrounds of famous American writers. She discovered that an impressive list of them were born or lived in Michigan. How, she’s displaying them as a part of the line all about during Michigan Week.
