8th Grader Wins Contest At Barnum

By JEAN GIBNEY Special Writer

After careful planning and much self-criticism, Barnum Junior High School students entered manuscripts in the annual Read Magazine Story contest in early April.

During the past week, results of the contest were announced in two separate divisions per grade level. Barnum's entries were judged by Mr. Allan Jacobs, a Wayne State University instructor currently finishing his doctorate.

Her other winners are Ninth Grade first division; Dee Kincaid, first place, Malcomb Smuts, second place, and Margaret Boyd, third place. Ninth Grade second division; Tim Duff, first place, Bob Hollingshead, Al Waters, Sandy Hinson, and Amy Valpey, tied for second, and Kathy Brooks and Roger Hibern tied for third place.

Eighth grade first division; Don Maxwell, first place, Pam Boyd, second place, David Rosenberger third place. Eighth grade second division; Tom Zane first place, J. C. Collins second place, and Ben King, third place.

IN THE SEVENTH grade First Division; first place, Melanie Tohn and Karen O'Rourke, Carolyn Neidert, second place, Sue Turner, third place. Seventh grade Second Division; first place, Don Maxwell, Chris Huger, second place, and Peter Eckenrode, third place.

For their outstanding work, the students will receive merit certificates for their work.

Set All-School Instrumental

Birmingham's annual All-School Instrumental Festival will be held Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. in the Seaholm High School Gymnasium.

The two concerts will encompass students from the fourth to 12th grades. Families of all students involved and other interested residents are invited to attend.

Due to the large number of children taking part in both programs, parents are requested to have their children at Seaholm High by later than 7:30 a.m. the night of the performance.

TUESDAY NIGHTS' program will feature numbers from all fourth grade instrumentalists, all fifth grade and sixth, the All-City Elementary Band and Orchestra and all the seventh grade bands.

The Wednesday night program will have the bands and orchestras from Barnum, Berkshire and Derby Junior Highs, and the bands and orchestras from Groves and Seaholm Senior Highs.

The concert Tuesday involves grades four through seven, while Wednesday through 12 will perform.

Music staff members conducting the various numbers are Burton Kramer, Robert Kutischer and Arnold Berendt.

A TOTAL OF 1023 musicians will take part in the Tuesday concert and a total of 460 will combine their music on Wednesday.
