

Episcopal Women Model In Church Fashion Show

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Yevich of Kenmore Road will entertain the 28 members of Braces Three couples bridge league at a cocktail party tomorrow before the group goes on to Sylvan Glen Inn for dinner.

Winners of the tournament just concluded will be announced at the dinner.

FASHIONS BY Peggy's of Miracle Mile, hair styles by De-lore of West Long Lake Road and make-up by Fashion Two Twenty were highlights of the fashion and luncheon organized by the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Church of the Advent last Wednesday.

Chairman of the event was Mrs. Ralph E. Bazzell of Long Lake Shores Drive. Members modeled the clothes while Mrs. Herbert O'Malley of W. Newland Drive did the commentary.

AT A MEETING in Bloomfield Township Hall on April 23, residents of Balmoral Orchards re-elected officers of the subdivision's association for a second term.

A. J. Richter, 5664 Priory Lane, remains as president; Randall Booth as vice president; Mrs. Frank Arnold as secretary and Gordon Beaubien as treasurer.

Brownie Troop 790 will entertain the mothers Monday afternoon with a puppet show depicting the Brownie story.

MRS. WILLIAM PASTOR of Norham Road gave a personal shower last Wednesday in honor of Barbara Bolus of West Darrington who will become the bride of George D. Shanahan, III, of Eastmoor Road on June 6.

Guests at the shower included the mothers of the bride-elect and groom, Mrs. John Bolus, and Mrs. George Shanahan; and George's sister, Kathy Shanahan.

Others were Mrs. Dan Ebbing, Mrs. Robert Eisen, Mrs. Edward Hendricks, Mrs. William Schumacher, Mrs. Stanley Rapis, Mrs. Robert Kreuz and Mrs. Harold Schenck.

LIKE MOTHER, like daughter! Twenty-three years ago, Mrs. Asher Tilchin of St. James Drive, representing Detroit's Custer school, competed in the annual Detroit News Metropolitan Area spelling bee and finished in 16th place.

On May 6 of this year she was in the audience as her 12-year-old daughter, Minda, finished eighth. Minda was one of the 28 semifinalists who survived grade, school and district bees from among 100,000 students in five counties who originally entered the contest in February.

This was Minda's second year as a semifinalist. For being a repeater, she received a copy of Webster's Dictionary of Synonyms.

Minda's father is owner of the Birmingham House Motel.

THE NEW York World's Fair is scarcely a month old but 12-year-old David Hedges of Pebbleshire Road has been there and back. David was one of the 107 Detroit News carriers who was a winner in the News' "Fly to the Fair" subscription contest.

On Monday, May 4, the boys flew to Kennedy Airport (it was David's first flight) and were taken directly to the fair. They stayed at the Hotel Telfair in Manhattan for two nights and spent all day Tuesday sightseeing in and around Manhattan.

THIS INCLUDED the three-hour sail that circles the island; then back to the fair on Wednesday and home that night.

"I liked the Ford exhibit best. It was real nice. Right next door is the Avis Rent-a-Car exhibit where they have cars that are old timers. I rode one of them."

David's brother, Pat, 16, is also a News carrier. Last March he won a four-day skiing trip to Grayling.

THE LEE Herdons of Woodwind Drive returned May 6 from a four-week tour of the West. Their itinerary included Grand Canyon, the Painted Desert, the Indian ruins around Santa Fe which particularly interested the Herndon children, Disneyland (ditto), Los Angeles, San Francisco, Reno and Las Vegas.

The five Herndon children range in age from seven-year-old Virginia down to Diana Lee, four months old.

"That's the easiest age of all to travel with," said Mrs. Herndon.

Mrs. Donald Ditz entertained her women's evening bridge group last Wednesday.

THIS BEING Michigan Week, it seems fitting to close with a poem by Greg Ross who is in Mrs. Fulton's fourth grade at Walnut Lake school.

Greg's poem was first published in "The Nutshell," the school's monthly bulletin, and is called "Michigan Fun."

Michigan is full of fun
With lots of trees and lots of sun.
It's fun fishing on the Great Lakes shore
With lots of fish just at your door.
