BLOOMFIELD NORTH

Activities Fill 'Week That Was'

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Busy, busy, busy—that was the theme of last week end, with the kids very much on the go instead of the parents for a change.

The peppy group of Girl Scouts of Troop No. 433 that so eagerly left Conant School Friday afternoon were a rather sorry, dirty, tired group that returned Sunday afternoon. It was a first long camp-out for many of the scouts and a rewarding one in spite of the rain.

Forty-five of the 48 girl troop attended the outing which took place at Indianwood Camp at Lake Orion. Accompanying the girls were their leader, Mrs. Donald Burch, assistant leader, Mrs. A. C. Clark, Mrs. Louis J. Weimar, Mrs. Richard Baker, Mrs. R. A. Denbroeder and Mrs. George Thomas, neighborhood chairman.

THE GIRLS didn't get all the rain, the Boy Scouts of Troop No. 1022 got their share of it also. They left the area Saturday morning and went by car to Holly to begin their hiking and camping. The boys were accompanied by Dads Fred Schmale, Bob Smith, Howard Geldorf and Don Lau.

An evening musicale will be presented tomorrow evening by the piano pupils of Phoebe C. DeGraff at Conant Elementary School. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Participating in the yearly recital will be Carol Albertson, Vicki Campbell, Gretchen and Driaka DeGraff, Vicki Fuller, Kristine Gega, Beverly Griffiths and Cheryl and Larry Hanner. Others include Maryann Miller, Wes Miner, Nancy and Elizabeth Sandercock, Kathy Schmale, Ruth Ann Strawser, Margie Van Halteren and Nancy White.

ON SUNDAY afternoon Mrs. Robert Glenn and Mrs. Vince Sandercock had a tea for the mothers and daughters of the sixth grade of Conant School. Many of the girls have been together since the opening of Conant three years ago. About 60 are expected to attend the tea which will be held at the Glenn home on Clarendon Road.

Sandwiched in between the Friday evening musicale and the Sunday afternoon tea, many of the same parents will attend the annual Delts of Bloomfield Association dinner dance Saturday evening.

It will be held this year at Forest Lake Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Kelly, social chairman, handled the arrangements. About 80 couples are expected to attend the affair.

THE WING Lake Shores branch, WNFGA, held their annual meeting and election of officers on May 7 at Edgewood Country Club.

Mrs. Martin Potts inducted the new officers. Mrs. F. W. Kussy, the outgoing president, handed over the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Earl E. Weston. The other officers are Mrs. Dale Holl, first vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Moore, second vice-president; Mrs. Howard Brown, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Koch, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ed Schenting, treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffin of Westwood Court will open their home on May 27 for a dinner in honor of board members of Conant School. Hosting the affair will be the retiring board. The honored guests will be members of the 1964-65 board, the faculty and their spouses.

DR. AND MRS. Edwin Westfall of Echo Road have both returned home following a combined pleasure and business trip. They departed the area two weeks ago and stopped in Connecticut for a visit with friends before going on to the Fair.

After a few days in New York Mrs. Westfall returned home and Dr. Westfall went to Georgetown to take an American College of Physicians course.

Echo Park Hosts Pre-School Group

The Pre-School Association of Metropolitan Detroit will hold their final meeting of the year on May 19 at 6:30 p.m. at Echo Park School, Bloomfield Hills.

Dr. Mason Mathew, child psychologist at Merrill Palmer, is guest discussion leader and will discuss special problems during the group box supper.

Next year's agenda and officers will be discussed at the meeting, at which 33 communities are expected to attend.
