

Girl Scouts Weather Storm At Troop's First Camp-Out

By ELEANOR NELSEN
MI 7-0955

It will be a long time before the girls of Girl Scout Troop No. 385 from the Booth School forget their very first camp-out. It was the night of the "big wind" May 8, when the Junior troop pitched their tents on the premises of their leader, Mrs. Robert Carrier of Wing Lake Road with the air of real professionals. Not a stake had to be re-driven in spite of the force of the wind.

They were 24 very brave young ladies who will admit to not getting too much sleep that night. Much of their planned program had to be canceled because of weather conditions but in spite of it they did earn their cooking badges, each patrol preparing a different part of the menu. The girls were accompanied by Mrs. Carrier and the co-leaders, Mrs. Thomas McVetty and Mrs. Charles Swanson and also by the camp counselor, Mrs. Betty Steele.

THE WESTCHESTER branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will have as their guest at their next meeting May 25 a student from the International Farm Youth Exchange who will interpret the I.F.Y.E. program. The meeting will be held in the form of an International Tea at the home of Mrs. William Chundrlik at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Frank Bayliss, Mrs. M. B. Ricketts, Mrs. Lawrence Salter. Several women of the branch took part in the Birmingham Centennial celebration.

Wearing poke bonnets and dress of the era, they serviced a delightful flower cart from which they sold geraniums and old fashioned hard candy. Many of their daughters also helped out at the cart.

THE NEXT meeting of the Maplebrook branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will differ somewhat inasmuch as it will not be held in a member's home but rather at the Communion Park in Royal Oak.

Alice Maynard will speak on the wild flowers that grow abundantly in the area. The date is Wednesday, May 27, time 12:30 p.m. Ladies attending are being asked to bring a lunch, box style, and enjoy the picnic-like atmosphere. It will be an evening long to remember and talked about for a number of graduates of Seaholm. A triple celebration was planned by Marilyn Barnes who recently celebrated a birthday. She, her escort and six other couples were taken to dinner at the Top of the Flame by Marilyn's dad proceeding the J-Hop at Seaholm last Friday.

Climax of the evening was the birthday party in her honor at the home of Rosemary Kent of Bradford Drive.

MR. AND MRS. Jack Agar of S. Cranbrook Cross returned home from the first part of May after spending a relaxing and fishing three weeks on the western shore line of Florida. Most of their stay was in the St. Petersburg area.

The Louis A. Desmond's Jr. of Sherwood Drive fairly beam when they announce they have become grandparents for the first time. Their son and daughter-in-law, the Robert L. Desmonds of Washington, D.C., have a son born on Monday, April 20. The young man has been christened Robert Louis Desmond Jr. in the famed St. Matthew Cathedral in Washington.

THERE SEEMS to be no end to the wonderful pre-nuptial parties that are being given in honor of bride-to-be Nancy Seelye of S. Cranbrook Road.

On Friday, May 15 there was a "going away" luncheon co-hosted by Mrs. Robert A. Nitschke and Mrs. Robert A. Reid, both of Tiblury. The ladies are neighbors of Nancy's future mother-in-law, Mrs. Arthur F. Brookman, and provided the opportunity for a lot to get acquainted.

On Saturday, May 16 a bedroom-bathroom-shower luncheon was given by Mrs. Tom Graham in her Oakhills Drive home in honor of the bride. Way last April 18, Nancy and her mother traveled to Dayton, Ohio their former home) where school chums and neighbors of Mrs. Seelye's gathered for a festive party for Nancy.

The Town Club of Ann Arbor was the scene of a luncheon "table-top" shower on Saturday, May 9 which was co-hosted by Nancy's schoolmate: Sue McNeal, Alice Schaefer and Elizabeth Leece.

Women's Bowling League wound up their season by celebrating at a luncheon held on Thursday, May 7 at the Birmingham Athletic Club. It was their first annual party but they hope to have many more.

First place team honors went to the Stingers, with both high game and high series being awarded to Mrs. John Farron. Rotating officers of the league were President, Mrs. William Mikulas; Vice-President, Mrs. John Farron; Treasurer, Mrs. Alan Cornwall; Secretary, Mrs. A. McC. Brown. New officers are President, Mrs. George Chisgro; Vice-President, Mrs. Robert J. Jones; Treasurer, Mrs. Godfrey Stone;

Secretary, Mrs. Frank D'Ambr. Mr. and Mrs. Alex Phylax of Breckenridge proudly announce the arrival of a son, John Alexander, born at Beaumont Hospital on Sunday, April 26. He weighed in at 6 lbs. 10 oz. Waiting to greet him at home were a brother, Steven and a sister, Stacey.

CHARLES N. Lebeaux of S. Cranbrook Cross, a professor in the school of social work at Wayne State University, was one of two professors chosen to receive the 1964 Award of Merit from the Metropolitan Detroit chapter of the National Association of Social Workers. The awards were presented at a dinner held at Mom's Restaurant in Detroit. In reporting on a study of the hardships of ADC families when they were cut off from the Detroit welfare supplementation payments last year, Prof. Lebeaux revealed how many children had to stay home from school because of the lack of clothing.
