Conkle-White Rites Read In Bay City

St. Joseph Church, Bay City, was the setting for the nuptial mass at noon May 9 in which Marilyn Ann Conkle became the bride of James Norman White.

The Rev. Charles Jacobs, St. Robert Parish, Flushing, Mich., performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Conkle, Bay City, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. White, Fairway Drive, Birmingham.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of silk organza and lace fashioned with long sleeves and a chapel train. A crown of tea roses secured her shoulder length veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Ann-McCarthy of Bay City was maid of honor, and Patricia White, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. They wore street-length dresses of mist pink with A-line styling, and matching headpieces. They carried pink daisies.

Terrance Tennant, of Essexville, served the bridegroom as best man, assisted by Lawrence Jordan of Flint. Guests were seated by James Wells, Detroit, and Donald Beckley, cousin of the groom, Bloomfield Township.

A WEDDING breakfast honor-Bienhurst, Tower Guard; Joyce Keelar, 8226 Golfview Drive, Mortar Board; Kathleen Derrick, 501 Merritt Lane, Tower Guard; and Patrice Keough, 124 S. Williamsbury, Tower Guard. They were tapped during the traditional Mortar Board-Tower Guard May Morning ceremonies at MSU.

Sure, lots of barbers know Osmun's.

And so do plumbers, bankers, lathe operators, lawyers and almost everyone else. When you've been in business for over 32 years you really can't help building up a following.

That's why recommending Osmun's to the man under the towel comes so naturally to our barber friend. He knows what we stand for: The best names in men's clothing (like famous 'Botany' 500 Suits) ... people who really care about serving him ... a charge plan tailored to his exact needs ... free alterations. Things like that.
