BIG PAW RESORT

ON LAKE HURON

HARRISVILLE, MICHIGAN

Through the years we have maintained the high quality of "Big Paw Dining" by combining the careful selection of the finest meats, fresh fruits and vegetables, Emily's own recipes, and her skill in preparation. Emily's fresh baked whole wheat bread, oven-hot rolls, flaky biscuits, cakes and pies are true "dining pleasures."

If you would like to know more about our summer resort we have a brochure for you which is almost as good as Big Paw really is. We will be opening May 22.

BEHIND the STORE FRONTS

With ANGUS McKELLAR

Nan Degen, of Nan's Hat Shoppe, 145 N. Woodward, is tieing into the Centennial Week festivities with a window display of vintage hats, borrowed from local residents.

They date from 1864 to the present.

Nan's is a 15-year old business and Nan herself has lived in Birmingham for 30 years.

TALENT IS far from being an exclusive product of New York, or other far-a-way places. A good example is Bette Aldridge (formerly of Birmingham, and now living in Rochester,) who designs the well known line of "Me Too" clothes for infants and toddlers. The clothes are manufactured by Charles Pindyck, Inc. of New York.

Bette will appear personally at Pam's of Bloomfield, in Bloomfield Shopping Plaza (Maple and Telegraph) Friday, 1 to 4 p.m., when she will meet old friends and devotees of the "Me Too" line and show her new summer collection of cool cotton knits in hot colors for the lollipop set.

FRIENDS OF the Mary Bragg Shop in Bloomfield Hills, at 1087 W. Long Lake Rd., will be happy to know that it will reopen soon under a new name.

Mary B. Andreae has sold her interest in the store to Virgina S. Sumner. Mrs. Sumner expects to carry the same high quality lines and hopes to be ready for business after some remodeling.

These girls grew up a block away from each other but never thought that they would meet again under such "busines-like" circumstances.

Goodbody & Co., 115 Brown Street, members of the New York Stock Exchange, are offering a unique stock market service to Birmingham area residents interested in securities.

Through the use of a Bell Telephone mechanical answering device, a capsule comment of each day's market activity, closing averages and closing prices of trend leaders, are available.

You may dial MI 7-3309 after 5 p.m. for your daily market report—courtesy of Goodbody & Co.

CHEF SAM RODRIQUEZ, of the Act IV restaurant, across from Fisher Building, gave us the chance to do a little culinary eves-dropping the other evening while he was preparing one of the specialties of the house, Chicken Clemenso'.

The chef says if you like it, come on down and see us in person at Act IV.

Proprietors are John Dahlinger and Clarence Baker.

Here's the recipe:

Saute in 3 tablespoons of butter (or olive oil) for 20 minutes

a) finely chopped medium-sized onion

b) finely chopped (2) cloves of garlic

Combine:

a) One diced uncooked chicken breast (one inch chunks)

b) Two diced potatoes uncooked (one inch chunks)

c) 1½ cup green peas

c) add saute of garlic and onion

Cook on slow fire (simmer) for twenty minutes.

(touches or oregano, accent, and Stalien pepper for added seasoning)

Serve in chafing dish with Spanish Rice.

Gets New Duties

Thomas H. Wagner, 554 Bennington, Bloomfield Hills, has been elected vice chairman of the Bank of the Commonwealth. Wagner is chairman of the board of directors of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Bank, president of Wagner Products and a director of Creative Capital of Michigan, Inc. In his new duties he will be responsible for assisting the chairman of the bank Donald H. Parsons of Birmingham.

Adds Account

Robert B. Carpenter Advertising, Inc. has been appointed as advertising and public relations counsel for the National Football news. Carpenter lives at 564 Overhill, Bloomfield Township.
