OFFICIAL OPENING SATURDAY

Little Leaguers Begin Play

Birmingham's Little League teams got off to a flying start last week to open the 1964 season, although official opening ceremonies aren't scheduled until Saturday.

Birmingham Mayor Charles W. Renfrew will address an official opening day crowd at Eton Park at 12:30 p.m. Saturday and will toss out the first ball of the season.

Most Little League teams, however, started the year during the past week with action in the majors, association and minor leagues.

HIGHLIGHTING the first week was a no-hitter by Jack Hamilton, who performed the feat in the first game he ever pitched in the majors. His pitching led the Mud Hens to an 8-2 win over the Orioles in the Federal Major League.

Rick Stein, 10, also playing in his first major league game, doubled home two runs to lead the Seals to a 3-2 victory over the tough-luck Orioles.

Pitching seemed to be the key to major league victories as hurlers shared the spotlight in the National League, also.

Dave Girard of the Braves and Steve Knight of the Dodgers hooked up in a duel that the Dodgers won, 1-0. Girard struck out 11 and allowed only two hits in defeat.

IN AMERICAN League action, the Tigers won two ball games, downing the Yankees, 5-4, and dumping the Phillies, 8-1.

The newly-formed Association League also began action. The Eagles walloped the Packers, 20-2, while in the National Association, the Terriers and Huskies each won two contests. The Titans lead the Continental Association with a 2-0 mark.

The Corsairs and the Bears are on top of the Federal Minor League and American Minor, respectively, with 2-0 records.
