Barnum Awards Writers

BY JEAN GIBNEY
Special Writer

The American Library Association annual conference was held in the Crowne Plaza Hotel, Friday, May 13. Mrs. William Bolam, president, opened the conference, which was attended by librarians from all over the country. After the opening session, the guests were invited to attend a cocktail reception sponsored by the American Library Association. The reception was held in the Crowne Plaza Hotel and was attended by over 300 librarians.

Barnum’s next book, "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," was published in 1884. The book was a success and is still read today. It is considered one of the greatest American novels ever written.

Hills Junior High Finishes Bowling Year

BY MARCIA MOYER
Special Writer

The Bloomfield Hills Junior High Bowling League was sponsored by the Recreation Department. The league included 12 teams, with each team consisting of 10 players. The league was divided into two divisions, with each division having six teams.

The league was won by the Bloomfield Hills High School boys team, which had a record of 10-0. The girls team, which finished in second place, had a record of 8-2. The league was held in the Bloomfield Hills High School gym.

Cranes Set New Prefect Procedure

BY BOB LEHMANN
Special Writer

During the past year, there has been a great deal of activity at the Crane Prefects. The new prefects have been selected, and the new prefects have been training for the upcoming year.

The prefects have been selected based on their performance throughout the year. The prefects have been training for the upcoming year, and they will be ready to take on their new responsibilities for the year.

The prefects are very excited about the upcoming year, and they are looking forward to making a positive impact on the school.