To Occupy Pulpit

A blind man and his seeing-eye dog will be welcomed at Lithuanian Church of the Redeemer Sunday, Joseph Loebs, a member of First Lithuanian Church of Detroit, A. F. L., will be in the pulpit at the 10:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. services, delivered by man and dog by permission. Loebs has taken the dog around the city and country. He will speak Sunday on the theme: "What Christ Means to Me." The Seeing Children Church will stage in the first service "The World? It's but a Garden. Lord." In the second service the order will sing the anthem: "I Will Praise Thee, O Lord."