and with an attractive background.

AT JACOBSON'S free front windows are turned out in cotto-nial style. Each presents a narrative in mosaic glass, titled and dated. The designs are all beautifully drawn and the colors are soft. The curtains are made of silk and the trimming is all done by hand. The windows are finished with a gold edge. The comfort of the bedrooms on the first floor are the most beautiful rooms in the house. They are decorated in the style of the 18th century. The furniture is all antique and the bedspreads are made of silk. The bathrooms are modern and the plumbing is all new.

May 21 Slated for Poppy Day

Poppy Day in Birmingham is Slated for May 21 by the Charles Edwards Park, Birmingham. Troop will take charge of the American Legion, and will be assisted by the YMCA. The Legion will hold its annual meeting on the same day. The Poppy Day Celebration will feature a parade, speeches, and a tea. The parade will start from the corner of Main and Central, and will proceed to the YMCA. The speeches will be given by various dignitaries, including the Mayor and the City Manager. The tea will be held at the YMCA. The proceeds from the Poppy Day Celebration will be used to finance the work of the American Legion.
