203 PIERCE STREET OPEN FRIDAY EVENINGS

Neighborhood Notes From Peggy

by MRS. J. F. HAMILTON MI 6-2532

Gilbert and Sullivan's H.M.S. Pinafore is being presented to-night at 8 p.m. in Torry School gym under the direction of Allyn A. Hinz, with members of the entire sixth grade taking part.

Assisting Mr. Hinz are sixth grade teachers Thomas Richards and Mrs. Madeline Albrecht. Richard Dexter, art teacher, designed the scenery with the help of his students.

The cast, Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph K.C.B., First Lord of the Admiralty, Pat Murray; Captain Coocran, Mike Betteridge; Seaman, Ralph Backstrew; Danny Benton; Dick Desdeys, Glenn Meine; the captain's daughter, Cynthia Carter; Sir Joseph's first cousin, Pam Cooke; Little Buttercup, Katherine Fitzgerald; Boatwain, James Feeley.

Singing in the chorus of the operetta are to be 70 members of the sixth grade class with Mrs. Aurelia Powledge, vocal music teacher, accompanying them at the piano.

Mr. Hinz, who teaches sixth grade and is assistant to the principal at Torry, has become famous for his musical productions which he has been presenting each year for the past 10 years. For tonight's performance, he rented costumes to give the show a really professional look.

TRAVELING BY PLANE from Munich to New York to Detroit, Katharina-Lex, twin sister of Mrs. John B. Tabb, arrived in the United States May 10. After visiting with the Bantons for a while, she went to live in Royal Oak with another sister, Barbara, who came here a year and a half ago from Front-housen, their home in Germany. Katharina expects to stay in this country indefinitely, or until she gets too homesick.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henrich, newcomers to Birmingham from the Colonia, N. J., were honor guests at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Tabb May 16. Other guests at the party were Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Marshall, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Renius, Royal Oak.

The Henrichs, who moved into the Buckingham Terrace apartments on N. Elton May 1, have two daughters, Barbara, 13, and Elizabeth, 10. Mr. Henrich is on the public relations staff at General Motors.

A ONE O'CLOCK luncheon at the home of Mrs. William B. Miller, 1445 Bowers, May 13 was an au revoir for Mrs. H. W. Ferchland. Co-hostess was Mrs. Louis D'Ambrosio. Closest friends and former neighbors of Mrs. Ferchland at the luncheon were Mrs. Gordon H. Nash, Mrs. Fred P. Currier, Mrs. Warren J. Kuter, Mrs. Thomas M. Scott and Mrs. John B. Tabb. The Ferchlands moved from Bowers St. to 2977 Oxford St., Gaslight Town, May 1.

New residents at 1528 Bowers are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald C. Brooks, who moved here May 9 from Royal Oak. The Brookses, natives of Michigan, are originally from Dearborn, living in Royal Oak since they were married a year ago. Mr. Brooks is a graduate of Northern University and also attended the University of Mexico. He is with Packard Electric, a division of General Motors. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks enjoy sports—skin diving, water skiing, snow skiing and deer hunting. Mrs. Brooks' hobby is mosaic. Desiree, a glamorous white French poodle, is at present the center of attraction in their home, but in September she will be relegated to the background.

Laidlaw-Hays Vows Exchanged in Lansing

Peoples Church in East Lansing was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Andrea Jean Hays, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Andrews Hays of East Lansing, and Richard Bruce Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Laidlaw of Tottenham Road, Birmingham.

The bride is a 1964 honor graduate of the University of Michigan, her husband currently a student at the University of Michigan Law School.

Dr. Wallace Robertson performed the ceremony.

The bride chose to wear her mother's wedding gown of white embroidered eyelet pique, featuring an unusually long train. She carried Majestic daisies and lilac-in-the-valley in a cascading bouquet.

MAID OF HONOR was Gloria Schmidt of Grosse Pointe, a sorority sister of the bride. She wore a light blue flowered print, with an A-line skirt and empire waist line. She carried a basket of white Majestic daisies.

Other attendants were Christine Laidlaw, sister of the groom, who is home from Marjorie Webster College, Washington D.C.; Meredy Menias of East Lansing; Mary Fran Van Loo of Grand Rapids, and Linda Ansell of East Lansing.

Stuart Laidlaw, brother of the groom, served as best man. John Hays, brother of the bride; Duncan Laidlaw, brother of the groom; Edwin Emerson, Monticello, Ind., and Larkin Breed, Ann Arbor, were ushers.

Janice Ann Hays, sister of the bride, was flower girl and ring-bearer.

FOLLOWING THE ceremony, a reception was held at Walnut Hills Country Club.

The couple plans a two months' tour of Europe as a honeymoon for traveling. The bride wore a two-piece outfit, jacket in delфт blue with white leather trim and white accessories.

Special guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Willick and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hays II, grandparents of the bride, and her great-grandmothers Mrs. A. B. Willick of Newton, Kan., and Mrs. J. E. Hays of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Other guests were Mrs. Blanche Gailey of Pittsburgh, Miss Bertha Schaffer of Ann Arbor and Mrs. B. F. Ohlinger of Ann Arbor, great aunts of the groom.

Tyler Parents Elect Officers, Plan Picnic

The Tyler Parents Orthopedic Group has elected Donald W. Deegan, president; William R. Patton, vice-president; Mrs. John J. Eager, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Jones, recording secretary, for the 1964-65 school year.

Plans for the group's annual picnic at noon on Sunday, June 7, were announced. Members and their families will meet at Major Park in Oak Park. Sunday's plans will be postponed until June 14 in case of rain.
