

S. Berkshire Ladies To Honor Officers

By ELLI BLAUMAN
MI 7-1485

A board meeting of the South Berkshire Women's Association was held last week at the South-one Drive residence of Mrs. Floyd Hatten.

Plans were made for a general meeting on June 9 at the Community House where the guest speaker will be a member of the Oakland County Bar Association.

To be recognized will be new officers; Mrs. Donald Williams of Southone Drive, president; Mrs. Russell Harriman of Woodhaven Drive, vice-president of administration; Mrs. Robert Kutch of Northone Drive, vice-president in charge of youth; Mrs. Erwin Smith of Thirteen Mile Road, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Maurice Welner of Lahser Road, recording secretary; Mrs. Thomas Richards of Southone Drive, treasurer and Mrs. Frank Kurk of Embassy Drive, publicity chairman.

Approximately 40 members of the association will meet for luncheon at Devon Club next Tuesday to say goodbye to Mrs. Marvin B. Cline of Stillman Drive, who will soon be moving to New York.

MR. AND MRS. W. W. Price, Cindy, Sally, and Weldon of Devon Road, plan to move into their new home on Lons Pine Road over the Memorial Day weekend. Actually, their "new" home is a 110-year-old farmhouse, and with the help of an area resident who was born in the house, they have been able to trace the ownership and history of the place back quite far.

Also located on their acreage are the remains of an old Indian trail which led from Apple Island on Orchard Lake. No doubt the Prices will keep an eye out for Indian artifacts, as some years back, an Indian skeleton was found on the property.

And as though all this weren't excitement enough, the Prices have bought a horse to ride around the wide open spaces. Sounds as though they're in for a lot of fun.

TEN MEMBERS of the John W. Hunter Chapter of Quarters drove to Ann Arbor last Wednesday after first meeting at the Beverly Road home of Mrs. Donald Conrad.

The day, which was planned by Mrs. Willard Robertson and Mrs. Fred Raabe, was a successful one as all who went bought antiques and had a good time.

The group stopped at Weber's for luncheon and a brief business meeting at mid-day.

Neighbors on either side of Mrs. Thomas Mitzelfeld co-hosted a going-away coffee for her last Tuesday. Mrs. Robert McCartney and Mrs. Charles Brindie, both of Arlington Drive, arranged the affair for 20 friends at the McCartney residence. The Mitzelfelds will be moving to Huntley on June 15.

MEMBERS OF the Beverly Artesian Improvement Association are busily engaged in finalizing plans for their seventh annual picnic to be held on June 6, which 300 association members are expected to attend.

This event is a favorite with the children. Besides being treated with favors and games with prizes for the winners, they have access to free ice cream, soft drinks, and popicles.

Marty Walker is general chairman of the picnic. Glen Redman will handle the games. John Barth and Pete Sutherland are in charge of prizes, while Durwood Allen and Henry Scussel will be responsible for the free refreshments.

THE JOHN C. Romettys of Leemore Drive are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Steven Rometty of Palm Desert, Calif., who are on their way back home from the World's Fair.

Fox & Hounds was the scene of a farewell luncheon for Mrs. Donald Malloy of Buckingham Road last Saturday.

Arranged by Mrs. Jay Valade, guests included Mrs. Andrew Mason, Mrs. Gerald Kelly, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. John Schaefer, Mrs. Donald Urban, Mrs. James Haidle, Mrs. Richard Brennerman, Mrs. Eldon Trueman, Mrs. Jack L. Ernst and Mrs. Harry D. Anderson.

The Malloyes are moving to Chicago.

Reception at Club Follows Ceremony

Judith Karen Meloche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Patrick Meloche of Lincoln Drive, Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Saturday to Carl Henry McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis McBride of Stillwater, Okla.

The 4 o'clock ceremony was solemnized in Christ Church Cranbrook, with a reception following at Plum Hollow Golf Club.

The bride wore a gown of ivory veiled silk organza and peau de soie. Imported Swiss satin flowers and pearl beading trimmed the controlled, semi-sheath skirt and the full-draped chapel train fell from the waist in soft pleats. A bouffant veil of French silk illusion was secured to a tiny pill box, and she carried sweetheart roses, stephanotis and white orchids.

KRISTINE KASTEN of Franklin was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Robina Odensweller of Grosse Pointe; Kay Hotsford of Birmingham and Karen Meloche of Detroit. Charlotte Todd of Tonkawa, Okla., was flower girl.

With the exception of Charlotte, who was dressed in pale pink, the attendants all wore floor-length gowns of jade green silk chiffon and carried cascades of dark pink sweetheart roses and miniature pink carnations.

Demis DeFries of Stillwater, was best man, and seating the guests were John Gary Smith of Ponca City, Okla.; Gordon Mel-oe of Detroit; Gene Bradley of Grand Rapids; Cecil Holens of Ponca City and James Coleman of Southfield.

MRS. McBRIDE

Following the reception, the newlyweds left on a motor trip through Colorado and New Mexico, after which they will live in Stillwater.

"Why don't you go to Osmun's?"

Bankers know Osmun's.

They have found that the time and money invested here in warm weather suits yield maximum interest—in quiet good taste and long-range value.

That's why in over 32 years so many of our fiscal friends (like our man in the picture) have taken the trouble to recommend us. And for that we are grateful.

That's why we find it no trouble at all to continue offering everyone the well-known Osmun's dividends: Nationally famous brands (such as Petrocelli Suits) ... special charge plans tailored to your exact budget needs ... free alterations ... free parking always ... and the people of Osmun's who really enjoy serving you.

Is this why so many Birmingham-Bloomfield men have made Osmun's their store? Is this why you should, too?

You can bank on it.

WHY DON'T YOU GO TO OSMUN'S FOR: PETROCELLI LIGHTWEIGHT SUMMER SUITS? Beautifully tailored iridescents and plaids in the true Petrocelli tradition.
