Our Choices For B’ham

SCHOOL EDITORIALS

After interviewing all of the candidates, The Birmingham Eccentric endorsed E. Ross Hanson, George Whitehead, and Mr. Adams in the race for the Birmingham School District election.

We offer our congratulations to all candidates for their hard work and dedication to the children of Birmingham. However, we believe that Mr. Hanson should be elected to the four-year term and Mr. Adams to the two-year post on the Birmingham School District ballot.

Mr. Hanson, on the board of education since 1969 and the president in the last two years, is well-versed in the workings of our public schools, the students, and the teachers. He also has a reputation for being fair and honest in his dealings with parents, teachers, and students.

Mr. Whitehead is a long-time member of the school board and has served as its chairman. He is known for his dedication to the children of Birmingham and his commitment to providing a quality education for all students.

Mr. Adams is a recent addition to the school board and has already shown a commitment to the needs of the community and the students. He brings a new perspective to the board and is already making a difference.

In conclusion, we urge our readers to vote for Mr. Hanson for the four-year term and Mr. Adams for the two-year term on the Birmingham School District ballot.

Joe Whitehead

Mr. Whitehead will bring to the board, in our judgment, the kind of balanced judgment that can integrate the interests of the community with the needs of the students. He also has the ability to deal intelligently with complex issues and respond to the needs of the community.

We believe that his background and experience make him a strong candidate for the four-year term. He also has the ability to work effectively with other members of the board to ensure that the best interests of the students are served.

Thus, we urge our readers to vote for Mr. Whitehead for the four-year term.

Says LBJ’s Policy Plain Socialist

A true, old, and true (Democratic) policy, LBJ’s, is now the subject of many American newspaper columnists. The shift of the liberal government into the Socialist Welfare State is now the main issue.

In his keynote address, President Johnson, who has been in office for over two years, outlined the new welfare program in his message to Congress. The program includes increased aid to the poor, a new housing program, and a program to assist the elderly.

In conclusion, we must support President Johnson’s program and work towards a better future for all Americans.
