Laidlaw-Hays Vows Exchanged in Lansing

People Church in East Lansing was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Andrew J. Laidlaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Laidlaw of Lansing, and Richard H. Hays, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hays of Ypsilanti. Mrs. G. Laidlaw, Lansing.

Bride is a 1940 honor gradu- ating an unusually long bride, the who wore a Light Brown wedding gown, with an A-line skirt and square waltz line. She carried a basket of white Roseus, decorated with bows of different colored ribbons. The bride's bouquet was made of white Carnations, yellow Dianthus, and peach roses.

Mrs. Marvin Kalte is New President

At an annual meeting held re- cently, Mr. George O. Marsh, who has been the president of the Central Michigan Central State University, was re-elected president for another term.

Other offices include Mr. Norman Sturry, vice-president; Mr. R. A. Veer, recording secretary; Mr. Cheston Wolden, corresponding secretary, and Mr. Charles Chang, treasurer.

BIRTHS

May 8—To Mr. and Mrs. James E. Scannel (Guest Gals of Bir- mingham), a son, James Dean.

May 9—To Mr. and Mrs. C. M. O'Brien (Birch Park), a son, Michael O'Brien.

May 9—To Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gilson (Allendale), a son, Matthew Macdonald.

To Be Bride

Judith Carol Mckinley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard H. Mckinley of Owosso, will be the bride of Mr. Thomas Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Hunter of Owosso.

The wedding is planned for June 5, at G. C. Thomas Church, Owosso. A reception will follow at the Hotel Ritz, Owosso.

The bride attends the University of Michigan and is a member of Alpha Phi and Omicron Delta.

They've got a lot of swimming to do... these young maidens in splash-happy swimwear from Jacobson's

They're summing on sunny beaches in sing, colorful swimsuits... blouses, mollots, every style under the sun... all in a guy assortment, patterns and fabrics. Sizes 4-6 and 7-14.

From 3.00 to 7.14.

Jacobson's

Children's Shops

315 W. Washington