Chapel Wins Award for Architects

The new chapel for the University Presbyterian Church, designed by Lane Smith Associates, Inc., 845 S. Adams Road, Birmingham, was selected for an honor award at a recent Dallas meeting of the National Conference on Church Architecture. Duplicate awards will be presented to the congregation and to the architectural firm responsible.

Y Camping Show Displays Equipment

Show outdoor camping has become one of the newest ways to take a family vacation. The Birmingham YMCA is presenting an exhibit at the YMCA on May 20 which will open.

This display is intended to inspire the campers-to-be in shopping for equipment. The display will demonstrate the latest in equipment, from the simple tent to the more elaborate.

A representative from each manufacturer will be on hand to answer questions.

The show will be open from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on May 20, and from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on May 21.

Tea to Honor Barnum Teacher

A tea honoring Mrs. Mary Barnum, who is retiring in June, will be held Sunday, June 1 from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. at Farwell Avenue High School Library.

Former students and friends are invited to attend. Everyone is encouraged to bring the teacher and conversely, who knows the way to the staff and PA of Barnum.
