Judson Bradley, prominent Detroit businessman and president of the Detroit real estate board, will speak on the "Possibilities of Birmingham," at the Citizens League supper to be held Friday evening, June 5, in the Presbyterian Church. Attorney W. C. Harris will give an address on "What a Newcomer Sees in Birmingham." Not often do our citizens have such opportunities for listening to efficient men and no one should miss this chance made possible by the Civic League. The hour is 7 o'clock in the evening and tickets are 5c.

Monday evening next, June 8, a sort of get-together meeting will be held at the Birmingham Inn, where Prof. Robert Senseman will present with his Molen Shrine Band of 25 pieces, and will discourse sweet music from the balcony. Host Wooster is determined to show the Shriners what a fine place our village is with a bounteous spread of the good things, edible and otherwise. Everybody is invited to hear the band on the balcony and help the landlord of the Birmingham Inn give them a good time.

The Oakland County High School Athletic Association will hold a track meet at Barnum Athletic field June 6. Seven of the leading high schools of the county will send track teams to compete for the beautiful silver trophy. A relay race will be added to the regular events. The ball game to decide the Oakland County title will be played between the South Lyon team and Birmingham at Pontiac Saturday morning. A cup will be offered to the winner.

Although he almost fainted from injuries received in an auto accident just before the ceremony, Harry Hilton, caddy master at Oakland Hills, went through with his scheduled wedding Saturday. Hilton, driving a car owned by golf pro Al Watrous, collided with a car driven by Helen Mau, 18, of 2101 W. Lincoln, Birmingham, when the latter attempted to pass an ice truck on Maple. The hood on crash, near Cleary Road, completely wrecked both cars. Hilton suffered deep cuts on his arm and ear and a badly bruised shoulder, but hurried on to the wedding. He was buried later.

At least five, and probably one or two more Birmingham merchants, have filed applications with the State Liquor Control Commission for licenses to sell bottled liquor as "specially designated merchants." Since Birmingham has no state liquor store, "specially designated merchants" here would be allowed to sell liquor at all hours except on Sunday. Four drug stores and one grocery store were known to have filed applications and probably the number is even larger.

Final ceremonies honoring the largest class of graduates in Baldwin High School history will be held Sunday and Tuesday evenings of this week. Sunday, the annual baccalaureate services will take place at 8 o'clock in the First Baptist Church, and on Tuesday evening, in Baldwin Auditorium, starting at 8 o'clock, the 97 members of the class will receive their diplomas at commencement exercises. Dr. W. W. Whitehouse, dean of Albion College, will give the commencement address.

Showing true championship form, the Birmingham track team won the state title Saturday on the Michigan State College.

track. The Maples amassed 49 1/2 points to 29 for second place 13-point. In the 100 yard dash, the remaining points were spread among 35 of the 73 competing schools. The Maples broke four school records. Three individual crowns and two relay championships were captured by the 100 yarders. Ed McClain took the pole vault, Joe Ross won the 100 and Bob Polin captured the 220.

A Southfield voter approved the $1,300,000 school bond issue by a two-to-one vote last Tuesday at a special election. The proposed 63 mill increase in taxes was approved by approximately the same vote. Glenn Schoenals, school superintendent, said work would be started as soon as the money is received. A new $900,000 high school to be erected at Ten Mile and Lahser. The board hoped to have the building completed by the fall of 1950.

A proposed $200,000 commercial development along the east side of the project, Birmingham, on the 14 Mile road, has bogged down after city plan commissioners last Thursday evening rescinded its action. The project, Birmingham, realtor John Knecht appeared before the commission and presented his ideas for a colonial store development. The store would be on Taunton, on Woodward, with a large off-street parking area to the rear of the stores.

City Beat

But in comparison to other parts of the city—to the high standards which generally are attributed to the community—I think of this particular district as a slum area.

Not from the point of view of snobbery—that would be ridiculous. I don't expect to see $30,000 and $40,000 homes there.

But I do know that some of the homes are in a deplorable state of disrepair. There are a few that are badly deteriorated. I have seen and have had reports of trash on the front porch and in backyards. Surely, something can be done about these conditions!

I think those occupants who are renters in the more rundown houses have the right to demand that their landlords effect immediate repairs.

I definitely would not like to see this area go commercial. I would much rather see more residential, pleasant, well-cared for homes. There are already many of them in this section.

LET ME SAY finally that though my efforts may be awkward my intentions are good. If I wrote only to stir people to hatred and anger, I could not sleep at nights.

And for the record, I do sleep well. The truth sometimes hurts. The truth is that there are some houses in this particular section of town that are of slum quality.

This truth cannot long be ignored—because if there is no action, the deterioration will increase and spread.

Does anyone wish for that to happen?

I think not.

CIVIC RECEPTION PLANNED

Parish Celebrates 1st Year

A reception for civic, educational and religious leaders from Bloomfield Township, Birmingham and Troy is planned as the opening social function in a series of events scheduled to mark the first anniversary of St. Thomas More Catholic parish, 4580 Adams Road, Troy.

REV. ANDERSON

MORE THAN 100 community leaders are expected to attend the reception Sunday, June 7. The affair is planned to acquaint community leaders with the new parish, its facilities and to introduce the Rev. Wm. L. Anderson, pastor, and parish officers.

St. Thomas More parish is composed of parishioners from Bloomfield Township, Birmingham and Troy. Members of the men's and women's Welcoming, Ecumenical and Reception Committees will be hosts at the reception.

On June 19, the anniversary date, there will be morning Masses of Christian Thanksgiving offered in the church with a special evening Mass at 7:30 p.m. to give all parishioners an opportunity to participate.

A family picnic is planned for Sunday, June 21, to climax the anniversary celebration. Every member of the parish is invited to attend this event.

It will be held at Upland Hills Farms, with hay rides, pony rides, a barbecue, games and activities for every member of the family.

ST. THOMAS MORE parish was established June 19, 1953. Ground breaking ceremonies for construction of the first parish building, currently being used as the church, were held on June 30.

Sunday Masses were held in Eastover School, Bloomfield Township, until December 1, 1953, when Archbishop John P. Dearden officially dedicated the new church building. The rectory was completed and furnished for occupancy in early February of this year.

Franklin Community Church Dedicated

The Franklin Community Church was formally dedicated at 4 p.m. May 31 in special services.

Situated on the Franklin Village Capital Savings Established in 1890 — Never Missed Paying a Dividend

Green, the church was opened in June 1954 to carry on the Christian traditions of the Franklin Community Church which was chartered in 1840. This present church building stands only a short distance from the original building which was erected in 1863.

THE MAY 31 service served a dual purpose. After the present building was dedicated, ground was broken for the construction of a new wing to be added to the church.

This is to house additional educational and social hall facilities to suit the needs of the active, growing congregation. The new construction is scheduled to be completed by fall.

Bishop Marshall R. Reed, of the Methodist Church, officiated at the ceremonies and delivered the sermon. Many of the former pastors of the church were present to take part in the service.

INCLUDED WERE Mr. Hugh White, now pastor of the Plymouth Methodist Church, Mr. Robert Searles, now of Cass City, and Mr. William Lovejoy, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Birmingham.

Under the direction of Miss Ellen Adlington, the Franklin Community Church choir presented the anthem "How Lovely Is Thy Dwelling Place" by Brahms. The soloist was David Brockway, who sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte.
