China-Barb-Chicks Enter National Cooking Contest

By ELLI BLAUMAN

If you've ever been complimented on an original recipe, you'll have some idea of how Mrs. William Payne of White Oaks Trail in Nottingham Forest feels now that she knows "China-Barb-Chicks" was good enough to win her the honor of representing Michigan in a national chicken cooking competition.

This was Mrs. Payne's first entry in the 17th annual contest and on June 17 she will be in Easton, Md. competing against other barbecue division winners from every state for the national prizes, which are well worth cooking up a storm.

To bring luck, Mrs. Payne has selected an appropriate costume for the competition. It features not only a Chinese mandarin collar, but an appliqued chicken on the pocket as well.

Win, lose or draw, her husband and children David, Jimmy, and Laura think her recipe is delicious.

Two-year-old David is no stranger to winning prizes himself and will soon be seen pedaling the brand-new bike he won by writing a slogan which took first place in a national contest sponsored by a boys' magazine.

LA and Mrs. Reed, John, Tom and Nancy made a temporary move last Friday to Ferndale, while awaiting the completion of their new home in Beverly Hills.

MR. AND MRS. Joseph Bolz, Jr. of Loehrbach Road have returned from Philadelphia where they spent several days visiting relatives.

While there, they attended the graduation of a nephew, James Higgins, from the University of Pennsylvania and the joint commissioning ceremony in which he was promoted to the rank of ensign in the R.O.T.C.

Ensign Higgins and his mother, Mrs. Wilfred Higgins of Honolulu, returned with the Bolzes and are now their houseguests.

While their parents were away, Carol Ann and Michael Bolz gave a bridal shower for Cecelia Gorka of Detroit, who will become Mrs. Thomas Bolz on June 29. Gary Ann, a senior at Marian High School, will be bridesmaid at the wedding.

THE VALLEY Woods Garden Club is having its international amorgasbord dinner this Saturday evening in the recreation room of the Maple Road Michigan Bank, where members will hear Terry Edgington speak about his recent stay in Thailand.

The women have a personal interest in Terry, as they have completely financed his tuition at Michigan State University, where he will begin his senior year in September, through such projects as rummage sale, bake and Christmas teas, and luncheons.

The evening was planned by Mrs. Charles Deuel, who was assisted by Mrs. John Tesmanar, Mrs. Ted Pazzani, Mrs. Donald Van Every, Mrs. John Bergsma and Mrs. Kenneth Kittle.

Valley Woods members have been invited to bring guests for the evening.

MR. AND MRS. Jerry Halloran of Robin Hood Drive are the proud parents of Brian Joseph, who weighed 9 lbs. 13 oz. at birth on May 25.

Cathy, Michael, and Mary greeted their mother and new little brother on Saturday when they returned from St. Joseph's Hospital in Pontiac.

New president-elect of the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary is Mrs. Roger Crimmins of Birwood Road, recently sworn in at the Community House.

BIRTHDAY PLANS for Jeff Boucher, who was eight years old last week, include a party and dinner for friends Paul Dumanois, Ricky and Robbie Service, Jeff Manix, Kevin Bereta, Fred Gilme, Jeff Stahl, Jim Blauman, Roger Ketting and Blair and Gary Shurtleff.

Jeff's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Boucher of Sheridan Drive.

Mrs. John Armstrong and Mrs. William J. Wink, Jr. co-hosted a luncheon for the women on Red and White Oaks Trails recently to say "goodbye" to one neighbor and "hello" to two new ones.

Transferred to Atlanta, Ga. with her husband was Mrs. Leonard Heine, Jr., and new to Nottingham are Mrs. Joseph W. Nelson and Mrs. Robert Wise.

TEA GUESTS MRS. ROY MERCER OF WALLED LAKE (LEFT) WITH MRS. HERBERT LAYLE AND MRS. R. E. STANFORD OF BIRMINGHAM

Membership Tea County-Wide Affair

The first annual membership tea of the Auxiliary to the Oakland County Branch of the Michigan Children's Aid Society was held May 27 at the Rochester home of Mrs. Arthur Dillman.

The Auxiliary performs several kinds of volunteer services. Some of its members drive babies to and from their pediatric appointments, reporting the doctor's findings to the caseworkers.

Others are needed to assist with routine non-confidential office work. A third group raises and spends funds for enrichment in the way of music lessons for talented youngsters, gifts for special occasions and provision for other special needs. It also gives the annual foster parents dinner, which honors and thanks the more than 30 families who care for the Agency's children.

GUESTS AT the tea included women from all over Oakland County who had indicated an interest in becoming participating members of the Auxiliary and had expressed willingness to help with at least one project each year.

Among those present were Mrs. Roy Mercer, Walled Lake; Mrs. Herbert Layle, Birmingham; Mrs. Thomas Eastburn, Birmingham; Mrs. R. E. Stanford, Birmingham; Mrs. Thomas Swegles, Rochester; Mrs. Herman Kurth, Pontiac; Mrs. H. D. McGrew, Birmingham; Mrs. C. M. Shelton, Rochester; Mrs. Merin McNutt, Rochester; Mrs. Tom Kennedy, Pontiac.

One highlight of the afternoon was a large tree representing the branches of service available to Volunteers. Following an informal explanation of the nature of the work and its responsibilities by board members Mrs. Raymond Rapaport of Bloomfield Hills and Mrs. Keith Crisman of Rochester, each guest indicated her preference by writing her name on the appropriate branch.

The tree, complete with information about the volunteer, will hang in the agency office for easy reference.

Paster-Galbreath Rites Announced

Naomi Ruth Paster, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Irving Paster of Detroit and Robert C. Galbreath, son of Mrs. Frank H. Galbreath of Maryland Blvd., Birmingham, and the late Mr. Galbreath, will be married Friday.

The bridegroom-elect has received his AB from the University of Michigan and his AM from Harvard. He is a candidate for a Ph.D. at the University of Michigan. Miss Paster was graduated this month from the University of Michigan, where she received an AM degree.

Franklin Launches UF Torch Drive

FRANKLIN — The United Foundation Torch Drive for 1964 was launched on May 13 by Mrs. Carl A. Rasmussen who will serve as Franklin division chairman this year. Oct. 21 is the opening date for the drive.

The work of recruiting volunteers will begin at once so the ground work of raising operating funds for the 197 voluntary health and social services in the metropolitan area can be effectively organized.

Wickhams Wed At St. Owens

A double-ring ceremony at St. Owens Church united Pamela Jean Read and Dennis Theodore Wickham in marriage on Saturday, May 30, at noon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Read of Cedarbrook Drive and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wickham of Old Mill Road. The Rev. Edward T. Walling celebrated the nuptial Mass.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length gown of ivory peau de soie trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls. It was designed with a chapel train. A veil of French illusion was held by a pillbox of peau de soie and Alencon lace.

Her bouquet was of calla lilies and stephanotis.

Maureen Gallivan of Bloomfield Township was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Rose Blanchard, Mrs. Kenneth Hamille, Mrs. Robert Obrecht, all of Bloomfield Township, and Lynn Ivey of New York.

They were all attired in empire-style mint green crepe gowns trimmed with narrow swath of dark green satin. Small low headpieces were created of dark green satin. They carried bouquets of pale yellow carnations.

Paul Bourdeau of Bloomfield Township was the best man, and ushers included Thomas Doyle, Lathrup Village; Ronald Read, Bloomfield Township; John Hayden, Livonia; James Lindensmith, Beverly Hills. Junior ushers were cousin of the bride, Daniel Aitken of Grosse Pointe Woods and John Bourdeau of Bloomfield Township.
