

St. Regis Graduating Class Is First in History of School

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-0856
History is being made close to the corners of Lanier and Lincoln these days.
St. Regis grade school will be having their first graduation exercises this Saturday. A graduation mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m., followed by breakfast at the Brother Rice High School for the graduates and their parents.
It isn't every graduation class who can look back with pride as having been the "first in the history of the school." One has only to walk across the street to witness another "big moment" in the history of the school.
Brother Rice High School will also be having their first graduation class. The big day will be Sunday, June 14. In many years to come the young men will return to the corridors of the school and point with pride to their pictures, the first to be placed upon the walls.

OUT-OF-TOWN guests who will be attending the June 6 wedding of Marilyn Regina Hasey and James C. Fasoli are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. McAvoy of White Plains, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bucher, Jr., of Ardsley, New York; and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hannan of Heartdale, New York.
When the Westchester branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association met on May 25 at the home of Mrs. William Chundrick of Middlebury Lane, Mrs. Edward Collins, civic improvement chairman of the Swedish Colonial representative in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Frank Drusynski of South Cranbrook Road was the lucky woman to win it. Now all she has to do is have someone in her family dig a hole in which to put her prize.
IT WAS hotnoanney time at Pine Knob on Friday for the parishioners of the St. Regis parish. Music was furnished by the St. Regis Band, another newly-formed group formed at the variety show which was given by the Parents Club of the parish recently. Caller for the square dances of the evening was Charles H. Busch.
Mrs. Alvah Tabor of South Cranbrook Cross is now at home. She spent two months in Dallas, Texas and the surrounding area, Texas being Mrs. Tabor's home state, she was kept busy visiting with relatives.
Big event of her trip was when the "clan" gathered to celebrate her sister's birthday, who was 92 and spry as a youngster," according to Mrs. Tabor.

for Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Gluckstad of Farmingdale Drive. They left Bloomfield by jet bound for New York on May 14. Headquarters at the Plaza they took in the World's Fair, theater and shops, all within a three-day stay.
Then they boarded another jet and flew down to Bermuda for a week. Accompanying them on this whirlwind trip were Mr. and Mrs. Einar Carlson, Mr. Carlson is the Swedish Colonial representative in Cleveland, Ohio.
It was "off again" for the Gluckstad when they drove down to Cincinnati, Ohio for a long Memorial Day weekend to visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Littig.
Biggest thrill was to see their grandson, Michael, who is now ten months old and learning to walk.
BETH ANN is the newest member of the William Safko family of Kingwood Drive. The young lady entered this world on April 27 at Mount Carmel Hospital and has now been welcomed at home by three brothers and a sister.
When Denton Hassel of Peble Lane traveled down to Indianapolis on May 29, it was for the purpose of attending his 34th Memorial Day auto races.
Hassel himself is a former racer of midsize cars. On May 22 the Hassels entertained Congressman William Bloomfield in their home, previous to the Congressman's appearing at a spaghetti dinner in Madison Heights.

Dittrich-Montgomery Rites Solemnized

Karen Ann Montgomery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred G. Montgomery of Birmingham, spoke her marriage vows Friday evening to Harold George Dittrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Dittrich of Bloomfield Village.
The ceremony was solemnized at 8 o'clock in Christ Church Cranbrook, with a reception following at Kingsley Inn.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk peau de seie gown with a Sabrina neckline, three-quarter sleeves and a scooters-type skirt which swept into a chapel train. Alencon lace, heavily re-embroidered and enriched with chalk and crystals in beading, accented both the skirt and bodice. Her matching crown secured a veil of imported silk illusion, and she carried white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.
CYNTHIA Montgomery was her sister's maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Lawrence G. Montgomery of Clawson, sister-in-law of the bride; Joan Dittrich, sister of the bridegroom, and Janet Edwards of Southfield.
They all wore white cotton organdy over pale pink taffeta with matching bows in their hair. Their flowers were cascade bouquets of blending gladiolus.
Scott Dittrich, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and seating the guests were Lawrence G. Montgomery, Albert G. Black of Detroit and David Olmsted, also of Detroit.
Immediately following the re-

THE WESTCHESTER School teachers and members of the PTA who took an active part in the school's triple-planned affair are relaxing a bit now that it is over.
Kickoff of the evening on May 22 was a pancake supper which was served to over 400 people.
Mrs. Jack Tuckfield was responsible for its running smoothly.
Second part was a "giant toy rummage sale," highly successful with only the "very unwanted" being left.
Last but not least was the entertainment, furnished by a group of Seaholm students known as The Continentals. General chairman of the eventful evening was William Mollison, who was assisted by Mrs. Robert Mease, Mrs. Richard VonKoenal and William Perry. The proceeds are to be used to furnish material for the library.
MR. AND MRS. Richard Knudsen of Teynham Place have returned home after a five day stay in Chicago. While Knudsen's time was taken up with business, Mrs. Knudsen found plenty of time for her favorite "indoor sport," shopping.
Their evenings were spent seeking quaint eating places and visiting with family and friends.
Ten days of vacation packed with activity was on the agenda
