An antique show and auction were part of the festivities of the three-day Country Fair at Detroit Country Day School. Among the antique dealers there were (from left) Sue Pettypiece of Troy Corners Antiques and Sue Putnam of Birmingham. Detroit Country Day School is located at Lahser and 13 Mile Roads, Beverly Hills.

Honoring Pioneer Brother

Three Birmingham-area sisters took part in a special rededication ceremony at Greenfield Village in Dearborn last week as part of Heritage Day during Michigan Week. The program was in honor of their airplane pioneer brother, Harry Brooks, who was killed in 1928 while flying a small experimental plane. The ladies are (from left) Mrs. R. W. Chissus of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Ralph M. Kreger of Clarkston and Miss Blanche Brooks of Birmingham. The marker honoring Harry Brooks was moved from its former site on the City Hall lawn in Dearborn to the mall in front of the Henry Ford Museum. The location is adjacent to the former Ford Airport where Brooks was flying the old 'Tri-Motor' and other planes for Henry Ford.

Jeff Baldwin was elected president of the Student Council for next year. The new vice president is Chip Smith and the secretary is Gerri Dann. A treasurer will be elected next year from the 7th grade representatives in the council. The Honors and Awards Assembly was held today. Pins were awarded to students who have excelled in scholarship, citizenship and service during the year. Twenty-four seventh graders received the bronze pin. Silver pins were awarded to twenty-two eighth graders. Twenty-one ninth graders qualified for the gold award.

*BECAUSE fifteen 9th graders

had earned all three awards, they were given the gold award and guard. These students are Dee Baily, Nina Bunin, Bob Calhoun, Diane Dickerson, Katie Effe, Sue Henderson, Sue Heisberger, Marsha Hetherington, Tom Kuzma, Kathy Mauck, Marcia Moyer, Karen Nalepe, Mary Pew, Regie Pierce and Judy Wood. Musical numbers included a violin solo by Linda Manassian accompanied by Barbara Thornburgh on the piano. 13%* AND STILL RISING!

The Eccentric Now Covers An Area Of Over 48 3/4 Sq. Miles

The accompanying map clearly portrays the news and circulation area of The Eccentric and its coverage of the trading area that goes far outside the city limits of Birmingham's 4 1/2 square miles. Actually, the City of Birmingham itself covers less than 10% of the entire area served by The Eccentric. Further proof of our readership acceptance is reflected by the fact that we have been designated the official newspaper by the governing bodies of the 3 important areas embraced in the area. Without doubt, we are the hometown newspaper for these 21,878 families.

*Circulation of The Eccentric is up more than 13% over 1963 audited paid circulation figures. There are 2,010 new subscribers making an all-time high of 17,200 paid circulation. We're particularly proud of our 13% gain. The Eccentric now goes into more homes than ever before. Over 3 out of 4 families in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area read the Eccentric.
