Catholic Group Sets Summer Work Agenda

Mrs. O. E. Wolford, new president of the Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Women, presided at a recent board meeting of the North Oakland deanery.

An entire new slate of officers and board members brought with them an agenda check full of plans, spiritual, civic and social.

A SUMMER schedule encompassing at least one activity in each of these veins was presented and will be the primary topic of discussion at a general meeting to be held on June 18 for the membership.

Hosted by the St. Mary's Altar Society, the meeting will follow a noon luncheon at St. Mary's Church, 215 Commerce, Milford, Mich.

The consideration of each individual link in relation to the whole chain is the food for thought at this kick-off assembly.

you really can save the money on hot water if you let Torrence install a new oil fired hot water heater... and who's interest is the fact that you get ALL you need... and MORE... while you save money.

Outstanding Students Named at Bloomfield

By KAREN TRIMMER
Special Writer

Announcement of the outstanding boy and girl students of Bloomfield Hills High School for 1964 was given at a special honors assembly on June 2.

Kim Kelso and Ed Anderson were selected for this year by a committee comprised of both students and teachers for their participation in school activities, scholarship and school spirit.

Both Kim and Ed were chosen last year to be members of the National Honor Society and they also hold officer positions on the Student Council.

BESIDES BEING president of the Student Council, Kim has been a member of the French Club, International Relations Club, Foreign Exchange Club, a past class and Girls' Athletic Association officer and an alternate cheerleader. In both her junior and senior years Kim was chosen to be a member of the All-League Choir.

Headmaster Picks Crane Prefect Body

By DOUG LIEBERMAN
Special Writer

Mr. Harry D. Hoey, Headmaster of Cranbrook, announced next year's Prefect body in assembly on Monday, June 1.

The boys serving as hearing Prefects will be Jim Bailey, Sid Barthwell, Tom Buford, Matt Friedman, John Graham, Carter Hicks, Brock Landry, Bob McCormick, Buzz Mieras, Paul Pillar, Reed Shafer and Tom Van Horn.

The day-boy Prefects will be Dave Craig, Graham McDonald, Philip Maxwell, Dick Moon and Tom Pfaff.

Tomorrow night at the annual Cranbrook Awards Night ceremony, Mr. Hoey will announce the duties to which the individual Prefects will be assigned.

Five boys will be Senior Prefects in charge of an upper school house; six boys will serve as Regular Prefects in the houses under the Senior Prefects, and five boys will be in the Lower School.

Four hearing and one day-boy, and one boy will serve as Head Prefect and will lead the entire student body as well as the Prefect group.

Canal Zone Needs MDs

Birmingham-area doctors are being notified that an examination is now open for positions as Medical Officer in the Panama Canal Zone, the central employment office of the Canal Zone Civilian Personnel Policy Coordinating Board, Balboa Heights, Canal Zone, announced today.

Positions are under the Canal Zone merit system, and employment is in federal hospitals on both the Atlantic and Pacific sides of the zone.

Positions are for medical officers in practically all fields of medicine. Entrance salaries range from $12,612.50 to $19,831.25 a year. In addition, those selected, who are U.S. citizens recruited from the continental United States, will be transported at government expense to their place of employment.

No written test is required, but applicants must be graduates of medical schools of recognized standing with a degree of doctor of medicine, have completed their internship and, in most instances, be licensed to practice medicine and surgery in a state or territory of the United States.

In Basic Training

Charles R. Heavenrich, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heavenrich of 815 Ridgedale Rd., Birmingham, is attending basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

During the training recruits are tested and interviewed which determines their future assignments in the Navy. Upon completing the program they are assigned to service schools for technical training or to ships and stations for on-the-job training in a Navy rating specialty.
