Brides and Brides-Elect Hold Social Spotlight

JACKSON - LAWRENCE
Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting for the evening wedding rites of Judith H. Lawrence and Michael G. Jackson on Saturday. Their parents are Mrs. Jack Lawrence of 1192 Lake Park Drive, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Lawrence, and Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Jackson, 8805 W. Maple Road, Birmingham.

The bride appeared in a silk organza gown by Christos of Galina fashioned with a sheath skirt and detachable chapel train. Alencon lace accented by points de Venise lace graced the bodice and skirt. A petite crown of silk organza petals and roses of Alencon lace held a bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley and orchids.

Honor attendant was Deborah M. Smith of Lakewood, O. Bridesmaids were Penny Jackson, sister of the groom; Gail Cornell, Josie Paulus and Mrs. William Thom, all of Birmingham. They wore short white dotted swiss gowns over pink taffeta.

BROOKMAN - SEELYE
A two-month honeymoon in Europe followed the wedding rites of Nancy Jane Seelye and Robert Kennedy Brookman Saturday in Birmingham's First Presbyterian Church. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Howard Seelye, 770 S. Cranbrook Road, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Brookman, 2420 Bradley Blvd., Birmingham. The bride appeared in a silk linen gown by Galina fashioned with a controlled skirt. The bateau neckline was accented with Alencon lace, as was the court train. Her mantilla was secured by a petite silk linen pillbox. Maid of honor was Jane Allan Wilson of Bloomfield Hills. Bridesmaids were Janet Brookman, sister of the groom, Alice Schaefer of Lansing and Sue McNeal of Birmingham.
