

Activities Rampant In Bullock Family

by MARTI CAHN

The William M. Bullocks of Tibury Road are short of space and long on surprises. Planned events for the past week included the visit of a houseguest, Bill Bullock's mother, Mrs. O. E. Bullock of Ravenna, O.; a buffet supper and cocktail party for Bill and nine companions who left this morning for an annual fishing trip to Waugessance Point (Beth and Art Lake co-hosted the soiree which included wives of the fishermen); a delayed birthday party for daughter, Pud, who entertained an uncounted number of guests on Saturday evening. Unplanned events included the arrival, for a few days' visit, of John Shafer of Evanston, Ill., who attended the University of the Seven Seas with daughter, Ann; the return yesterday of daughter Marcy from the University of Vermont, accompanied by her classmate Julie Pfannenstiel, of Crystal Lake, Ill.; a surprise offer to sixteen-year-old son Graham who, after formal arrangements, was paid seventy-five dollars to be photographed (for an ad in Life). Jan (Mrs. B.) eyes her next schedule—a slow boat to China! PEGGY BAUBERVIC, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bauberiv of N. Glengarry Road, will become the bride of John M. Carroll, son of Mrs. John Morton Carroll, of Traverse City and the late Mr. Carroll, June 27th at Holy Name Church. Mrs. Hazen L. Funk gave the first party to honor the bride-to-be. Twenty-four attended the supper and bathroom shower held at Mrs. Funk's home on Abington Road, Detroit. Mrs. John D. Richardson, Jr., entertained at an electrical shower and luncheon at her home on N. Glengarry Road, Bloomfield Village. Nancy Fischer, bridesmaid, will give a luncheon and kitchen shower Saturday in her home on Lasher Road.

Saturday evening Holly Hoyt, another bridesmaid, will entertain at a buffet and "date shower" (the groom will be honored with handy-man gifts), to be given at the home of Molly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hoyt, of N. Glenhurst Drive. Mrs. Russell Wright will honor Peggy at a luncheon on Monday given at her home on Fairway Drive, Detroit. Mrs. John Hauser of Hamilton Road, Bloomfield Village, will give the spinster party. MRS. JOHN P. WOOD departed last Thursday for Evanston, Ill., to meet her first grandchild, Baby Kathryn Koch; Wolfinger was born Sunday, May 31, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfinger. Mrs. Wolfinger is the former Virginia Wood, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John P. Wood of Bloomfield Hills. Dr. Wood will join the family next week when Mr. and Mrs. Wolfinger and the baby move in to their new home in Glenview, Ill. Mrs. Clarence Hatch, Jr., of Broadway Blvd., was joined by her mother, Mrs. Robert B. Richardson of Bloomfield Hills, on Friday when the two traveled to Haverhill, Mass., to attend Monday's graduation exercises at Bradford Junior College. Kris Forster, daughter of Mrs. Hatch, a member of the class of

'64 will return to Birmingham this week prior to enrolling for summer school at the University of Michigan. Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, wedding and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Back Home
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beaufort of 17801 Birchwood, Beverly Hills, have returned from a two-week stay in Florida. Frankfurters originated in the city of Frankfurt am Main, in Germany.

Kappa Kappa Gammmas Held All the Cards

As the result of a year-long bridge tournament, Birmingham alumnae members of Kappa Kappa Gamma Sorority Mrs. Frank Carlson and Mrs. Lyman L. Fishburn (from left) turned over a check for $2,100 to Mrs. Louis J. Colombo, president of the Foundation for Emotionally Disturbed Children, at a luncheon held at the Village Woman's Club June 2.
