

Newlyweds To Make Home In Ann Arbor

A wedding trip to Wyoming followed the afternoon wedding of Judith Ann Bishop and Gregory Russell Harrison on Saturday at the First Congregational Church of Birmingham.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lloyd Bishop, 16141 Amber Road, Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Harrison of Detroit. The bride wore a silk organza floor-length gown, enhanced with a bell-shaped skirt and chantilly lace bodice. A pearl cap secured her fingertip veil.

SHIRLEY BISHOP, sister of the bride, wore a deep rose gown for her duties as maid of honor. Attendants Beverly Bishop, another sister, and Ann Harrison, a sister-in-law, were gowned in pale pink.

Ronald Cosper, a cousin of the groom from W. Lafayette, Ind., served as best man. Ushers were Bruce Pettibone and Brian A. Moore. A reception at the church followed the services. The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Far East Jaunt

Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Hill, 2873 Whittier Drive, Bloomfield Hills, have recently returned from a three-week trip to the Orient. While on their 22,000-mile jaunt they visited Tokyo, Hong Kong, Guam, Wake Island Manila and Honolulu.

U. of Minnesota Presidents Cited At Alum Confab

A potluck luncheon at noon closed the season for the University of Minnesota Women's Club on Friday. It was held under the trees which surround the home of Mrs. Raymond Books of 16000 Harrison, Livonia. The hostesses were Mrs. Harold Nyberg and Mrs. Harold Helgeson, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Donald Constans of Berkeley.

Suggestions for next fall's programs and a discussion of this past season's accomplishments were the order of the day. The presentation of president's plans to the outgoing president Mrs. Howard Baer of Detroit and Mrs. M. J. Patterson of 888 Henrietta, Birmingham, a past president who is moving to Texas in August, also made this a red-letter day.

This Is the House That Blue Birds Built

Quarton School Blue Birds, who are Junior Camp Fire Girls, recently completed a story-book table illustrating Matierlinck's "The Blue Bird," from which the girls derive their name. The project required building a miniature house, stage settings and doll characters.

It was on display for mothers last month, and is being presented again this month to other Blue Bird groups. Among those who helped construct the fairy tale exhibit are Susan Gordon (from left), Salliane Kelly, Jane Bowman and Linda Buechler.

NORTH ADAMS

Residents Depart on Tour of Demark

By ELIZABETH YATES MI 6-1682

Mrs. Richard Smith, a former North Adams Road resident now living in Birmingham, and her mother, Mrs. Eric Bergshagen of North Adams Road, departed a day apart this week for a stay in Copenhagen, Denmark.

Mrs. Smith arrived at the airport just in the nick of time to board her plane on Tuesday after attending a "bon voyage brunch" at the Lake Park Drive home of Mrs. David J. Underdown.

It will be a trip of reminiscing with old friends, relatives and such familiar places as the University of Leipzig where Mrs. Bergshagen studied before becoming a concert pianist. For Mrs. Smith the exciting trip, her first in the nick of time to board her plane on Tuesday after attending a "bon voyage brunch" at the Lake Park Drive home of Mrs. David J. Underdown.

On their itinerary are enchanting places such as the Hans Christian Andersen birthplace at Odense, the town of Elsinore where the setting of Shakespeare's "Hamlet" is played each summer in the courtyard of Kronberg Castle as it has been done through the centuries.

They expect to spend some time at the famous Tivoli Gardens where they will dine in a few of the 20 restaurants, attend the theater and view the fabulous flower gardens. The Little Mermaid whose head had just been replaced is another stop for mother and daughter.

They also plan to visit Rosenborg where the crown jewels are on display, the surrounding castles and palaces, and the annual Viking Festival which include the historic Viking ships. While touring Copenhagen, which is made up of 50 islands, they will visit the family homestead built by ancestors in 1400 at Hesselagergaard, a highlight of their journey.

Also on their itinerary will be the witnessing of Danish-American Day complete with July 4 fireworks, the fjords in Oslo, Norway, and areas in Sweden before returning home.

OTHER TRAVELERS home after five-year stay in Geneva, Switzerland, are former North Adams area residents, Mr. and Mrs. John Haight. They will be moving into their new home in Southfield in June.

Mrs. Louis Deak of Pine Hill Drive entertained at a luncheon and bridge honoring Mrs. Haight and her return to the States on Friday afternoon. The other guests included Mrs. Harold M. Joyce, historian and Mrs. William Pilcock, chaplain.

The executive committee is Mrs. Lucille Gries, Mrs. Lucy Miller and Mrs. Fran Keller. Mrs. Ava Sisson, junior past president, was chosen as district delegate to the national convention to be held in Dallas, Texas in September. Mrs. Joseph Stout is the alternate.

Marygrove alumnae and their husbands living in the Birmingham area are the hosts of Mr. and Mrs. Judge Boarden, 2109 Tenthman, Birmingham, on Wednesday, June 17 beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Looking Back On Party Fun

Nancy Knight, daughter of the Robert B. Knights of Birmingham, and Gary Nobel, son of the Harold C. Nobels of Grosse Pointe, were married Saturday in Christ Church, Cranbrook, preceding which the bride was honored at innumerable parties.

MRS. EDWARD A. Proctor of Wing Lake Road also entertained for Nancy, as did Mrs. Carter A. Chamberlain; a threesome including Mrs. Carl S. Abbott, Mrs. William C. Leach and Mrs. John D. Hoppin; Mrs. John S. Judd; Mrs. John A. Moelke and Mrs. Richard E. Hinks of Grosse Pointe; the James L. Camerons and Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rumsey; Mrs. Richard Garlick and Mr. and Mrs. Parbury Schmidt; and Mrs. Mable, who hosted the rehearsal dinner at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, and Mr. and Mrs. James O. Wright, who entertained the out-of-town guests at a luncheon in their home on Wing Lake Road.

American Legion Elect New Officers

The 18th district held their meeting Friday at the Ferndale Post 350 at Ferndale. After the meeting they elected officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Joseph Stout of Royal Oak was elected president of the 18th district American Legion Auxiliary. Other newly elected officers are Mrs. James McKee, alternate president; Mrs. James Gray, secretary; Shirley Joyce, historian and Mrs. William Pilcock, chaplain.

The executive committee is Mrs. Lucille Gries, Mrs. Lucy Miller and Mrs. Fran Keller. Mrs. Ava Sisson, junior past president, was chosen as district delegate to the national convention to be held in Dallas, Texas in September. Mrs. Joseph Stout is the alternate.
