

LATHRUP-CRANBROOK VILLAGE Announce Bridge Winners In St. Bede's Tournament

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

Last Wednesday afternoon the ladies of St. Bede's Catholic Church gathered at Devon College for the annual luncheon and awarding of prizes in the bridge tournament.

Winners To Group I in the ladies afternoon competition were Mrs. Chris Fournier and Mrs. Alex Olshafsky, first, and Mrs. Robert Kahl and Mrs. John Barrett, second.

Group II first place winners were Mrs. Stephen Butcher and Mrs. Richard Anderson. Second were Mrs. George Rostow and Mrs. Dana Norton.

Group III winners were Mrs. Robert Morris and Mrs. Charles Austin, first, and Mrs. Kenneth Hogan and Mrs. John Rodgers, second.

MRS. RICHARD Lentz and Mrs. Robert Kahl were first and Mrs. Alex Olshafsky and Mrs. George Cummings, second, in the ladies evening bridge tournament.

Playing duplicate bridge, Mrs. Robert Kahl and Mrs. Earle Hoener took first place and Mrs. Alex Olshafsky and Mrs. Fred Byington, second.

The ladies didn't win all of the prizes. In the duplicate category, winners were the Robert Kahls and the Fred Byingtons.

THE FRED Byingtons also took first place and the Earle Hoeners, second in Group I of the couples bridge contest.

In Group II, winners were the Oliver Minnichs with the William Calderwoods second. Group III winners were Dr. and Mrs. Jerome A. Smith and the William Kellers, second. The Peter Spellmans and the Leonard Thornes were first and second in Group IV.

In the men's (alone) competition, Dr. John Barrett and Robert Kahl were the winners with J. O. Look and Ben Shea, second.

MR. AND MRS. James Lansing of Spring Harbor returned home recently from a relaxing long week end at Long Beach on Lake Michigan. They were accompanied by house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Courtney of Dearborn.

Also in the party were the Courtney daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gasser of Farmington; Mr. and Mrs. James Penn of Farmington; and Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cramer, also of Farmington. The couples played golf, swim and relaxed.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Robinson of Fall River Drive and Mrs. Robert Mulcrone of Rock Creek Drive have recently returned from a week at the World's Fair.

They only spent the first and last day visiting the fair however, because unfortunately Mr. Robinson sprained his ankle the very first day.

The trip was enjoyable in spite of the ankle. They spent a few days at Three Villages Inn on Long Island and renewed friendships with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Paley who are former residents of Fall River Drive.

And, speaking of renewing friendships, the George Cummings of Hickory Leaf Drive will do just that when the Mathew

Legal Notices
CITY OF BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Sealed Proposals Requested
Sealed proposals for the purchase of 100 tons of...
T. C. BRIEN, Superintendent, Dept. of Public Works

CITY OF BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN
Sealed Proposals Requested
Sealed proposals for the purchase of 100 tons of...
T. C. BRIEN, Superintendent, Dept. of Public Works

Lund Singers Impetus for Entertaining BEVERLY HILLS Judge Sura Family Records Busy Month

On Tuesday, June 23, at 8:30 p.m. in the Scottish Rite Cathedral, Detroit, Lund University Singers of historic Lund University in Sweden will give a concert sponsored by Detroit-Swedish Council, Inc., in cooperation with the Arpi Swedish Male Chorus.

The 45-men and one-girl soloist band, young soprano from the Royal Swedish Opera House, recently made a success in her debut as Elisabeth in Tannhauser.

MANY LOCAL people are interested in the concert. Among those planning dinner parties preceding it are Consul and Mrs. Edward Johansson, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav von Reis, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Sealhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Nelson, Alvin Heikstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Lesley W. Dahlberg, Mr. and Mrs. David Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. William Arlund, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert F. Swanson.

Jane Carlson, daughter of the Glen A. Carlsons of Country Club Lane, is chairman of ushers for the evening and has enlisted Adriane Andrews, Becky Wild, Anne Hopkin, Teresa Seibert, Bert Johansson and Carol Herberberger to assist her. Adriane is some of the singers at her parents' home on Ridgewood Road and Jane Carlson will have an outdoor steak grill for the young Swedish singers.

Other Huntley residents who took their little braves to camp Ophrys were Dr. Bernard Mandel, Mrs. Dora LaSage and Mark and Brian; Dick Sejnst and Tom and Todd; Chuck Ewald and David; and Ed Range and Jay.

A FAREWELL party for the Marvin Clines took place at the Birmingham Country Club last Saturday evening, where approximately 60 people met for cocktails and dinner.

A gift of remembrance was presented to Mr. Clines by the guests, all of whom worked with him during his term as village president last Monday afternoon for the New Jersey.

EIGHTY WOMEN, all members of the Beverly Hills Association, gathered in the garden of Mrs. Henry Hoppel of Ingewood Drive last Monday afternoon for a Mad Hatter tea party.

As the name suggests, all arrived with unusual chapeaux which they had made using any materials desired. Prizes were awarded for the most outstanding.

Assisting Mrs. Hoppel were co-hostesses Mrs. John York and Mrs. Lawrence Mattice and Mrs. John Pearl.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD Backert of Chelton Drive have returned from a trip to Bermuda where they stayed at the Fountain in Miami Beach and at the Escape in Ft. Lauderdale, returning by way of Atlanta.

Mrs. Frank J. Jankie of Locher Road invited her first grade class at Greenfield School, along with their mothers and younger siblings, to a back yard weenie roast last week.

Mrs. Jankie was assisted by room mother Mrs. Ted Shurtleff, Mrs. Allan Nelson and Mrs. William Mullan.

A MISCELLANEOUS shower honoring Debbie DuVall, daughter of the Clair DuValls of Lauderdale Road, was held last Thursday evening at the Arlington Drive home of Mrs. H. B. Houck.

An unusual display arranged by Mrs. Houck and her co-hostess Mrs. Roswell Burroughs greeted the 25 guests as they gathered at the buffet table. Two large wedding bells inscribed "Dobbie" and "Dave" were suspended between oak trees in the yard and were visible through the picture window.

Another special touch contributed by Mrs. Burroughs was a bride centerpiece used for her own shower 22 years ago.

Debbie will be married on July 11 to David Parker of Union Lake.

BY ELLI BLAUMAN ML 1-1466

Many busy people live in Huntley, but few have been more active recently than the Sura family of Chelton Drive.

Judge and Mrs. Ted Sura attended the annual probate seminar at the Sheraton Lodge near Baire last month, returning long enough for Midge to entertain the Eta Eta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority at her home on the 27th.

Local caterers served luncheon, after which bridge prizes were awarded by Mrs. James Stewart. Then the two top teams of the group's bridge marathon, Mrs. Ron Spingier and Mrs. William Ginder, Mrs. James Carey and Mrs. Reginald Bellow.

OUTGOING PRESIDENT Mrs. John Cale of Greenwood Drive was presented with a gift of appreciation.

Then the Suras, this time with sons Ted, Scott and Mark, made a trip to Indianapolis to visit with friends over the Memorial Day week end, and while there they also took in their first 500-mile race.

Some of the Apache tribe in the YMCA Indian Guide program, the judge spent Saturday evening camping out with Ted, 10, and Scott, 7.

Other Huntley residents who took their little braves to camp Ophrys were Dr. Bernard Mandel, Mrs. Dora LaSage and Mark and Brian; Dick Sejnst and Tom and Todd; Chuck Ewald and David; and Ed Range and Jay.

THE BEVERLY HILLS Athletic Club pool opened on Memorial Day marking the earliest week end in the Club's three-year history. The pool will open for daily swimming on June 15.

Mrs. Alan J. Shelton of Ingewood Drive hosted a recent coffee to introduce two newcomers to the neighborhood.

Mrs. Richard Withington and Mrs. Murray Triplett met Mrs. M. F. Supprell, Mrs. John LeRoy, Mrs. Henry Hoppel, Mrs. Harold Harding, Mrs. Lyle Blahna and Mrs. G. K. Theising.

Society Dept. deadline for all organizational news, wedding and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

Christenings Are Incentive For Reunion

Consul and Mrs. Edward Johansson of Birmingham are looking forward to a family reunion on Saturday when two of their grandchildren will be christened in their home by the Rev. Henry Walsh of the First United Presbyterian Church in Plymouth.

The Johanssons' oldest daughter, Mrs. James Garber, and Mr. Garber's third son will be named Charles Olof Garber. Godparents will be Mrs. Garber's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edward Johansson of Royal Oak. Charles Olof will wear his mother's long baptismal gown made of batiste and fine lace from Sweden.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Edward Johansson's second daughter, Kirsten Lynn, will have as her godparents the senior Johanssons and the parents of Mrs. Johansson, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Porter of Royal Oak.

AMONG THE family will be the great-grandparents of Kirsten Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Porter of Detroit and great grandmother Mrs. Edgard Rusk of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garber of Plymouth and Mr. James Garber's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Sealey of Birmingham.

Consul Johansson's sister from Sweden, Mrs. Richard Dahlgren who is spending a couple of months traveling in U.S.A., and their sister, Mrs. Norman Turford of Detroit, together with Mrs. Turford's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Decker Jr., will be present.

Following the ceremony a buffet luncheon will be served in the garden.

It is now believed that paper was the invention of a high Chinese official named Tsai Lun, who lived about two thousand years ago. He used the beaten fibers of the inner bark of the mulberry tree; when these fibers were matted together, they formed a white sheet. Prior to Tsai Lun's invention, Chinese did their writing on silk fabrics and flat pieces of bamboo.

Goodwill Junior's B'harm Leader

Mrs. Harry J. Altick was named the new president of the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries at a tea at the Grose Pointe War Memorial.

Mrs. George T. Wilde and Mrs. Ewald Hans Schiewe of Birmingham were named chairmen of the antique market. Mrs. Richard Wagner was named chairman of the nominations committee.

Also cited at the tea were new members completing their probationary hours. From Birmingham were Mrs. George T. Davis, Mrs. Charles Erickson, Mrs. L. G. Robinson and Mrs. Thomas T. Restrick.

Kaybarm
This is the look you love... the step-in shift of genuine imported bleaching madras. A wonderful value. Predominantly blue. 8 to 14.
Phone and Mail, Order 6-8777

BIRMINGHAM - GROSSE POINTE
166 W. MAPLE 16922 KERCHEVAL
THURS. FRI. TIL 9 MON. & THURS. TIL 9

Business Women Elect New Officers

The Birmingham Business Women's Club held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Claude Walker on Telegraph Road.

At this meeting, election of officers was held and annual reports given. Elected were President, Hazel Johnson; Vice President, Bette Barstow; Secretary, Trudy Wenzel; and Treasurer, Marion Meadowcroft.

The Business Women also had a float in the recent Birmingham Centennial Parade. Riding on the float were Caroline Hackett, Avis Wooster, Trudy Wenzel, Rose Buck, Beulah Reiter and Audrey Kemp, who were all in authentic Centennial costume.

Members of the Beverly Hills Association, gathered in the garden of Mrs. Henry Hoppel of Ingewood Drive last Monday afternoon for a Mad Hatter tea party.

As the name suggests, all arrived with unusual chapeaux which they had made using any materials desired. Prizes were awarded for the most outstanding.

Assisting Mrs. Hoppel were co-hostesses Mrs. John York and Mrs. Lawrence Mattice and Mrs. John Pearl.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD Backert of Chelton Drive have returned from a trip to Bermuda where they stayed at the Fountain in Miami Beach and at the Escape in Ft. Lauderdale, returning by way of Atlanta.

Mrs. Frank J. Jankie of Locher Road invited her first grade class at Greenfield School, along with their mothers and younger siblings, to a back yard weenie roast last week.

Mrs. Jankie was assisted by room mother Mrs. Ted Shurtleff, Mrs. Allan Nelson and Mrs. William Mullan.

A MISCELLANEOUS shower honoring Debbie DuVall, daughter of the Clair DuValls of Lauderdale Road, was held last Thursday evening at the Arlington Drive home of Mrs. H. B. Houck.

An unusual display arranged by Mrs. Houck and her co-hostess Mrs. Roswell Burroughs greeted the 25 guests as they gathered at the buffet table. Two large wedding bells inscribed "Dobbie" and "Dave" were suspended between oak trees in the yard and were visible through the picture window.

Another special touch contributed by Mrs. Burroughs was a bride centerpiece used for her own shower 22 years ago. Debbie will be married on July 11 to David Parker of Union Lake.

Bloomfield Beach & Boat Facility NOW INTERVIEWING FOR 1964

Think!—make plans in advance. Be Sure.

Close to Home — 2 Lakes — Family Fun In The Sun
Beautiful • Primitive • Nearly 100 Land Acres • 3 1/2 Miles of Private Roads
• Almost 2000 Water Acres • 10 to 20 minutes away from most of our families.

PRIVATE UNCROWDED SELECTIVE REASONABLE
BOATS for families without boats. Fabulous DOCKAGE for privately owned boats. WINTER STORAGE FREE. Boat Trailer storage FREE. Private RAMP, night lights, night boating, private police protection. Shielded from wash and wave. WATER SKI BOATS, and equipment RENTED, from $1.00 to $4.00 per lesson. For FISHING or pleasure. Beautiful, safe sand BEACH. SWIM in clean, clear, SPRING FED PRIVATE LAKE. Hard bottom, no holes or dropoffs. CRACK LIFE GUARDS, swim lessons included. Diving and swim rafts. Beach SNACK STAND, bathroom. SAIL BOATS, CAMPING, COOK-OUTS, PICNICKING, UNCROWDED. WATER SKIING taught. Truly NON-MAL COST. 60% of our families DO NOT own a Boat. There is nothing else like our facility in the Bloomfield Area.

A wonderful summer for the family of the busy DAD who wants the best for his loved ones. Mothers, small children, teenagers and the college crowd "HAVE A BALL." Fathers join them after work and on weekends. Don't waste the "never to return" priceless years when your children are growing up.

For a few qualified families of approximately the same economic, social, cultural and educational backgrounds. Most of our families work for the "Big Three", various advertising agencies and local businesses. You probably have friends who will be delighted to tell you all about us. No charge for looking, dreaming and talking.

AVERAGE FAMILY SPENDS LESS THAN $200 PER YEAR—WINTER SPORTS, TOO
You would probably be both surprised and proud of your associations out here. A very relaxed, warm and informal place.

Being a private facility, it's mandatory that a screening committee pass upon the acceptability of all applicants.
Pay us a visit soon. No obligation either way. Drive Orchard Lake Road to Keego Harbor light, Turn North follow the signs to 4300 Cass-Elizabeth Road—or Telephone 682-3231 for an appointment.

Open daily 9 a.m. until sunset. Ted Wade, Managing Director
P.S. Good boating facilities are really scarce. Highway trailer boaters miss 50% of boating fun. Don't wait too long.

New Bloomfield Office — at the corner of Lahser and West Maple — Drive-in windows make saving quick and easy.

Instituted for local people... by local people

Birmingham FEDERAL SAVINGS
Main Office: 99 West Maple, corner Pierce, Birmingham—MI 4-1711
Bloomfield Office: Corner West Maple and Lahser—MI 7-1505
Berkley Office: 3055 West 12 Mile Road—LI 5-7610