Scouts Make Big Footprints to Follow

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-9056

The Boy Scouts of Troop 1066, a newly formed troop this year, broke all sorts of records which will have to be lived up to in future years.

Their treasury showed a neat balance in spite of the purchase of much needed equipment for the new troop. It had been swelled as a result of the boys working diligently on their one-year project, the sale of Christmas wreaths.

At a meeting Bill Busch, the troop chairman, gave information on summer camping and a canoe trip which took place the weekend of May 22 on the Au Sable River.

Highlighting the May meeting was the introduction of Mr. Gordon Halsey who had with him an exhibition and movie from the Norad project. Climax of the night were the refreshments served to the scouts and their parents.

THE CHARLES VanDusen family of Kingswood Drive will be leaving this area soon on a move to the East. Their summer will be spent in New Jersey, their former home.

On May 30 the James Bostwicks of Old Mill Road celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at a surprise party their daughter Patricia had arranged for them.

Family and close friends came to pay homage to the Bostwicks who were then further surprised when red roses arrived, a gift from their son James who is stationed with the Air Force in Africa.

THE CHARLES Flynn home on Cathedral Drive is jumping these days. With four daughters, either home from college or about to arrive, things are anything but quiet.

Daughters Debbie and Patricia will be leaving shortly to spend the summer at a resort in Connecticut. They plan to wind up the season with a trip to the New York World's Fair before returning home around the first of September.

"PLEASE COME to a Party" said the women of St. Cecilia's Guild when they issued invitations to a couple "get-acquainted" evening held June 6.

Most of the women are well known to each other, but as usual, many of the husbands had never met. They gathered at the home of the Walter Cooks on W. Beckenridge for a buffet, card playing and lots of conversation.

A DATE encircled on the calendars to the Girl Scouts of Troop 666 was Wednesday, June 3. This was the date of their second court of awards which was held in the Multi Purpose Room of the Westchester School.

After the honors were given, Awey's Bakery presented a program entitled "The wonderful world of baking." Climax of the evening was the serving of refreshments from the bakery.

BEFORE MARILYN Regina Hasay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hasay of Wedgwood Drive became the bride of James C. Fazio June 6 she was feted at several showers. One took place May 17 which was cohosted by Misses Carol Watson and Maryann Lanzetta.

Both young women were bridesmaids. It was a luncheon and miscellaneous shower. A second miscellaneous shower was held May 12 in Detroit by Miss Rita Fazoli and the other bridesmaids.

MRS. H. K. NULF of Lahser Road left her home early in the day May 26 bound for Dearborn. There she attended a luncheon at the Dearborn Country Club with other members of the Michigan Division of the W.N.F.G.A. Assuming her duties as an official hostess at beautiful Fairlane was quite exciting. In the late afternoon she was provided for the guests whisking them to the Dearborn Inn where there was a reception. It was an opportunity for many husbands to meet, and a wonderful banquet was served. The speaker of the evening was "Bud" Guest.

FRIDAY, MAY 29 found the Nulfs bound for Rockford, Ill., where they spent the weekend at the Wagon Wheel. Accompanying them from this area were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Batie of Franklin Hills. After reaching their destination they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Swendsen and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Audrin both of Chicago.

There was much celebrating among the foursome of couples inasmuch as both the Swendsens and the Audrins were having their 35th wedding anniversaries, and Mr. Batie enjoyed a birthday party.

OFFICERS who have been elected to take over the reins for the Westchester School PTA are president, William Mollison; father vice president, Frank Whitton; mother vice president, Mrs. Charles Horst; recording secretary, Mrs. William Vastine; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Richard Simonian and treasurer, Gunther Lanzsch.

The election took place on April 22. Guest speaker for the evening was John Slesesmund, Jr. whose topic was on the school millage.

BUSINESS TAKES the Leo Koester family of Pickering Road from this area to Chicago. The move will not be made until after June 15 because their son Thomas will be a member of the first graduation class of Brother Rice High School.

Their daughter Leah Carol will be returning from a year abroad where she studied at the University of Grenoble in France. French was Carol's major subject, and she hopes to put it to full use in government work. When she returned home on June 8, it was in time to do some visiting with her friends before the family made their move.

RICK MORROW, son of Dr. and Mrs. Courville Morrow of Putnam Drive, is home from Ferris State College where he has completed his sophomore year.

The Episcopal Churchwomen of the Church of the Advent will meet Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. William Aft, 2715 W. Long Lake Road. Election of officers is on the agenda.

AT A WEDDING dinner at Sylvan Glen Inn on May 22, Norman McClure and Mrs. James Martin were awarded prizes and trophies as high scorers in the Blues Three couples bridge tournament which ran for seven months.

Runners-up were James Martin and Mrs. Elmoold Hill, second place; and Willard McPhee and Mrs. John Gorsuch in third.

A second tournament is planned for the fall.
