

Bayer Paces Open Trials At Franklin

George Bayer, biggest man on the pro golf tour, led the field in the sectional qualifying for the National Open at Franklin Hills Tuesday.

The 6-foot-8, 240-pounder shot six-under-par golf as he toured Franklin Hills in 68-70-138. Sam Sneed at 144, Art Wall at 140, Johnny Pott at 142, and Don Fairfield and Bob Rosburg, both at 143, were some of the top pros to make the 39 qualifying spots, although "the Slammer" was early trouble.

THE FRANKLIN Garden Club couples heard Dr. Robert O. Belcher discuss "Waters of Michigan" when they met last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brehm, 2835 Evelyn. The Franklin branch of the WNFCA made a expedition to Fairlane Monday afternoon to see the gardens and have a box lunch on the Ford estate.

FRANKLIN HILLS pro Ted Kroll was among the many casualties as only five Michigan golfers passed the test. None of them were from local courses.

This Year's Festival Offers All the Berries

By NITA HARD MA 6-3224

FRANKLIN-The Franklin Community Association plans to hold its annual Strawberry Festival and Band Concert on the village green June 21 from 3 to 5 p.m.

A strolling musician will entertain assembled families in the early afternoon. Old and new cars will be on exhibit. Along with vintage classic models there will be several experimental cars forecasting trends in styling and engineering by leading manufacturers.

THE FRANKLIN Library announces their will be a children's story hour offered this summer for youngsters from four to seven years old.

To continue serving the residents of the area, the library is sending out its annual fund drive letters to solicit family memberships still at the rate of $5 per family.

Library circulation has grown to over 11,000 volumes each year and readers will find more than 4,600 books on the shelves from which to select the best of literature.

A private and independent community service, the small library has been sustained for over 25 years by annual subscriptions, and personal contributions.

AFTER 50 YEARS of playing golf, Thomas R. Adams, 24880 N. Cromwell, made a hole-in-one May 27.

A retiree, Adams aged 120 years, on the seventh hole of Bob-O-Link Golf Club using a number 8 iron for the shot.

THE ELLIS PREMOS of Willowgreen Court are experienced grandparents but take very special pride in announcing the recent birth of twins to Mr. and Mrs. William Premo of Spartan Village on the MSU campus.

Cynthia Marie and Joseph John were born May 9, but everyone has been blitting back and forth to East Lansing to lend the new mother, the former Catherine Herbert, a hand with her double burden. This formal announcement is tardy.

COUNCILMAN Edmund Webb and citizen Tom Barnes will be awarded honorary memberships to the Franklin Community Association at the Strawberry Festival.

COMMISSIONER Charles F. Clippert, the ordinance's principal backer, said he hopes that a form of a citizens group such as a historical society would also be started to work with the board.

HE SAID THE Dearborn board receives about a $10,000-a-year budget appropriation from the city and another $30,000 through citizen subscription.

ALTHOUGH HE strongly recommends the establishment of the board, City Manager L. R. Gare said he hoped the group would be more independent, and less dependent upon tax funds than is suggested in the ordinance draft.

CLIPPET, along with James K. Flack, chairman of the history and heritage committee of the centennial celebration, have urged the city to adopt the ordinance during the birthday year.

St. Joseph's Expands Employee Parking Facilities

Building Begins At Boys' Ranch Construction began a week on a new Boys' Ranch at Camp Oakland, near Oxford. The structure on a lake will house 20 wards of Oakland Probate Court who would otherwise have no permanent home.

The new building replaces a six-bedroom house formerly used as a Boys' Ranch. The old building will be used for administrative offices.

JULIAN WILSON and Sons, 360 N. Woodward, Birmingham, were awarded the contract for construction. The completion date is set for February 1965.

A building fund to finance the ranch was started with proceeds from three benefit premieres and a golf exhibition.

THE BENEFITS were sponsored by the Women's Committee for Camp Oakland, headed by Mrs. Ben D. Mills, 750 Vaughan Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Along with maintaining Boys' Ranch and Girls' Ranch, Camp Oakland provides free summer camping for 500 underprivileged children every year. The camp also houses and teaches vocational skills to boys who are school dropouts.

HE SAID IT would be necessary to completely rebuild the parking lot on the east side of the Hill Building because the grades and wider width of the new pavement would make the present lot unusable.

He recommends the City assume the cost of the parking lot rebuilding and in exchange for the right-of-way the City would require no contribution toward the park.

Gare said school officials have indicated they would accept the City's offer.

He added that the City also has options for the majority of property necessary for the widening.
