THE RINK OPERATED on Tuesday nights for men only—15 cents including skates. Mornings and afternoons were reserved for ladies; Wednesday nights for gentlemen accompanied by ladies and Thursday and Saturday were regular nights.

Soon after the opening came a series of special entertainment features. According to a vote of the house, Ed Lamb was judged the best skater out of the 10 contestants and given first prize while Miss Allie Hagerman took second.

Business was so good that prizes were raised two months later so that admission was 10 cents and skates extra.

The rink was sold in 1885 and converted into a department store by the new owners, Frank Blakeslee and Volney Nixon.

However, a new rink was soon erected at the corner of Brown and Pierce streets but its fame was short-lived and by 1888 the sport of indoor skating disappeared from Birmingham.

Roller Skating Had Short Life In Birmingham

When indoor roller skating took the country by storm in 1884 Birmingham was no exception to the fact.

The rink was opened in September 1884 and was managed by Rev. Sully Goodman with dentist D. M. Johnston and a Mr. McBride as proprietors.

It was an immediate and overwhelming success.

IT ALL started on a bus on the way back from a field trip to the Detroit Historical Museum. Mr. Strader said he had been asked to do something for Michigan Week, and someone suggested a map for the front of our school. Our teacher thought it was a good idea.

About a week later we talked about it and figured out how much it would cost, and after we had the answer everyone earned a dollar to buy the map.

After a couple of days of hard work we had a bright shiny map of Michigan. Now is time to glue. After many sticky fingers and lots of smiles we had a map.

All sorts of worries were going around like: "Will the glue stick?" or "What if the wire stays?" Well, at last it was up and we had a nice map that the whole class of 206 had helped make.

Richie Jarrigan

BRETT BRISKIN thought of the idea of making the map. Our chairman was Mike Adams, the secretary was Polly Gannon, and the treasurer was Robby Murdock. Our room was split into groups.

The material was oil-cloth. On our map we included the state tree, bird and flower. One night after school two boys measured the building.

The next day we found out how much oil-cloth we needed. Our teacher brought a sewing machine. We overlapped one side of the oil-cloth and sewed it.

Then we put a pole through that side and tied rope on it. We hung it on May 15, 1964.

Lynn Mattson

ONE DAY a boy in our class at school had a brainstorm about an idea. That day he told our class about his idea. We had a vote

Michigan Week Map Enthuses Students

The idea was to make a gigantic map and put it on Adams School. We did it in about one and one half weeks, too! We used oilcloth on the map. There are some important cities. We have things the state's heritage and products, many times working past school hours until 5:30 p.m.

We divided into little groups and worked on it. We had to figure out the cost of the oil-cloth. One-night a group in the class went shopping for the materials.

Some of the teachers at school helped pull it up on the building. It was a lot of fun putting it up and working on it.

Mary Winsand

WE HAD many interesting and worthwhile practical lessons as we worked on our project, too!

Social Studies—history and importance of our state; language arts—research for information, discussions, reports; arithmetic—figuring the size of the map (12' x 15'), figuring the cost of materials ($26.50), scale drawings; art—the actual drawing and making of the map itself and music—learning and singing the title song of our state, "Michigan, My Michigan" for our Michigan Week Assembly program.

Most people don't realize how low Chrysler's new prices really are. Do you?

We find that many people think a Chrysler is a high-priced car. Quite frankly, some models are. But what many people don't realize is that some Chrysler models are actually priced lower than a small car after you figure the cost of equipping one the way you'd like it.

Take the Chrysler Newport sedan. Manufacturer's suggested retail price is only $2901, not including the variables like state and local taxes, destination charges and optional equipment. That's $2901—which includes such good things as a 361-cubic-inch V-8. The kind of engine you'd pay extra for on a smaller car.

Interesting, isn't it?

Then why stick with the smaller jobs? They can't muster the room, the ride, the luxury or the performance you really want—no matter how many extra-cost options you put on them.
