BIRMINGHAM

By R. L. KILPATRICK, Manager

IF YOUR PHONE could talk, it might have a bit of a Southern accent! For one important part of most phones today is a small fluffy ball of cotton. The cotton is tucked into the hollow part of the handset, to prevent vibrations and echoes from the mouthpiece reaching the earpiece. This tiny addition contributes greatly to the amazing clarity with which today's phones transmit voices across town or over thousands of miles with equal ease.

"WE'RE ON OUR WAY!"

Planning a trip? Before you pack up, pick up the phone and let folks know when to expect you. You'll avoid the disappointment of finding them away from home when you arrive. And of course it's equally important to phone ahead when a hotel or motel is your destination. And when you arrive, why not phone the folks at home? They'll be glad to hear you arrived safely. It doesn't cost much to keep in touch by Long Distance—use it often.

BE OUT-OF-DOORS

without being out-of-luck when the phone rings. Ever miss out on an important call because you were out in the yard and couldn't hear the phone ring? It won't happen again if you'll just ask your Telephone Man to install a Bell Chime ringer. This device can be set to ring extra loud when you're outside. Then when you're indoors the Bell Chime can be set to announce calls with soft, melodious notes that will soothe your ear—or set for your regular telephone "ring." Order yours today. Just call our Business Office.

NEWS AND NOTES Honors Assembly Sparks Final Marian Activities

By KATHLEEN DARGA
Special Writer

As a salute to Marian students and as the final assembly of the school year, the Marian High School Honors Convocation took place June 8.

Nine members of the senior class were recognized for outstanding scholarship by the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce. These are Mary Rose Critelli, Carol Bolt, Kathleen Darga, Teresa Peterson, Susan Consolmagno, Kathleen Hedraw, Mary Slowik, Lorraine Chorkey and Kathleen Sullivan.

Recognition by National Merit Scholarship Corp. was earned by Lorraine Chorkey, Kathleen Darga, Christine Ratke, Mary Beth Reardon and Mary Liz Taylor. These students received letters of commendation for their performance in the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test.

THE TRADITIONAL department awards were presented by department heads to the students. Mary Slowik and Kathleen Sullivan earned religion-society pins, as Mary Rose Lamb and Susan Consolmagno received honors for work in social studies.

The National Association of Teachers of French honored five students for placement in their recent contest examination. Carol Bolt, Mary Rose Critelli, Mary C. Rock, Frances Thurber and Marilyn Wilkinson received French awards.

Teresa Peterson won science honors; Lorraine Chorkey, Latin honors; and Judy Heinen and Lorraine Chorkey, mathematics honors.

CREATIVE WRITING pins were awarded to Nancy Brosius, Kathleen Darga, Barbara Esslinger, Judith Good, Nancy Morris, Christine Scribner, Kathleen Sullivan and Suzanne Young.

Maureen Anderson and Susanne Young won honors for work in dramatics, while Diane Koch, Victoria Matousk, and Joan Fitzpatrick received recognition for work behind-the-scenes in Marian's several productions.

Valerie Bostwick, Paula Kocis,

Janet Johnson and Susan Mahr were honored by the art department. Marian Kuhnhen by the home economics department, and Kathleen Monge, Diane Lepo, Elizabeth Savickas, and Marian Uffinger by the business department.

FOR OUTSTANDING work in the service club, Kathleen Monge, Sharon Giroux, and Karen Yagley received pins; Sandra Prochaska received a photography pin. Sharon Giroux, Cynthia Lupinski, Mary Leo Taylor and Mary C. Rock were recognized for four years of perfect attendance.

Elizabeth Bridge, Jeanne Heber, Mary Heich, Victoria Matousek and Kathleen O'Donnell were awarded trophies by the Girls' Athletic Association for outstanding achievement in various sports.

IN THE JUNIOR class, top scholastic honors were won by Patricia Cleary, Ricky Hoffman, Barbara Arim, Denise Fontana, Linda Gibson, Ann Nemetz, Jeanne Heber, Rita Zorn and Susan Cefai.

Kathleen Kalls, for the second straight year, was awarded a summa cum laude pin by the National Association for the promotion of the Study of Latin. Susan Cefai, Margaret Conklin, Ricky Hoffman, Diane Griso and Marcia Polonski were awarded maxima cum laude certificates.

Sophomore class scholastic honors were won by outstanding students Kathleen Heinen, Robin Kuebler, Kathleen Naughton, Diane Rice, Barbara Zawacki, Cassie Kirkpatrick and Gail Lift.

SEVERAL SOPHOMORES also won top honors in the National Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin, for their performance in the Auxilium Latinum National Latin Examinations.

Winning summa cum laude pins were Robin Kuebler, Cassie Kirk-

Teacher Retires After 38 Years

"Schoolteaching is a selling job," believes Dorothy Joy French who is retiring after 38 years at Brookside School Cranbrook.

Sitting in her second grade classroom, Miss French discussed her philosophy of teaching.

"Telling isn't teaching," she said. "It's very important that a child want to do something, rather than being made to feel he has to do it."

"NOR IS learning. I try to help a child discriminate and look for the little things."

Miss French considers her classroom to be a "home away from home." With its brightly colored drawings, round tables and small chairs, the room has the appearance of a recreation room, but one with a purpose as indicated by the math charts.

Miss French has seen the growth of Brookside. "My first class had only five pupils," she recalled. "Now I have 28."

THE SECOND graders are taught early the appreciation of art. Each year Miss French has taken her class to Christ Church Cranbrook to study the stained glass windows, the frescoes and other art objects. When the children return to the classroom they make their own stained glass windows.

Although she is leaving her full-time duties, Miss French will continue at Brookside on a part-time basis assisting with special projects.

Six Kingswood Girls At Religious Forum

By BETTY KRAUSE
Special Writer

School is out for another year. Until next fall, most books will be put away. Six girls, though, are representing Kingswood at the Lake Forest Religious Conference during the week of June 15-19.

These students: Sue Birdsof, Louise Bowen, Gina Burnes, Betty Krause, Marcia Mayhew and Sandy Trubow will live in the dormitory of Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill., with representatives from a dozen girls' schools.

THE SCHEDULE consists of two chapel services and three lectures a day. The chapel service is conducted by the chaplain and the speakers include clergy of various faiths.

After each lecture, the girls and speaker meet to discuss points made in the speech. They meet again each evening to discuss informally topics chosen by the girls.

One during the week, several meetings are held to compare various school organizations, such as Student Council, publications or athletics.

Miss Kusow is the chaperone for the delegation. The Conference is sponsored by the Midwest Association of Schools for Girls.

The purpose of the Conference is to give the participants an opportunity to explore the common beliefs of the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths.

SINCE THEY will all be seniors next year, the Conference hopes to help them find new strength for leadership.

The delegates have always come back, with many fresh ideas for school and on religion, having shared their ideas with others.

Truck drivers are trained to drive safely, courteously, and to offer a helping hand when needed. Most first drivers know first aid as they know the routes they travel... know how to use the safety devices and first aid equipment in most trucks.

The Michigan Trucking Association maintains a Full-time Safety Director with the responsibility of promoting safety courses, which the drivers take on their own time. So, when you need help on the highway... flag a truck driver. He's trained... and he'll be glad to assist you.
