WALSH-KIMBROUGH

Laurel Adelaide Kimbrough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Price Kimbrough of Bloomfield Hills, walked up the aisle of St. Hugo of the Hills Church at noon Saturday to become the bride of Thomas Edward Walsh, Jr., of Bergenfield, N. J., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Walsh of Pearl River, N. Y.

The bride wore a sheath gown of Spanish lace, fashioned with a scoop neckline embroidered in seed pearls and a peau de soie detachable chapel train. Her elbow-length veil of illusion was secured to a crown of satin and pearls and she carried white orchids and ivy.

JULIE ANN GEORGE of Bloomfield Hills was maid of honor, and bridesmaids included Betsy Ann Rowland of New York City; Mrs. Patrick T. McGahn, Jr., of Margate, N. J., sister of the bridegroom, and Shirley Louise Smith of Bloomfield Hills. They were all dressed in floor-length yellow chiffon over peau de soie, wore matching bows in their hair and carried miniature yellow and tangerine carnations.

Dr. Francis A. Zampello of East Haven, Conn., was best man, and seating the guests were David Adams of New York City; Matthew R. Kimbrough, brother of the bride, and Jack Merritt of Jamaica, N. Y.

Following a reception in the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Bermuda. On their return, they will make their home in Bergenfield, N. J.

Among special guests at the wedding were both grandmothers of the bride's family: Mrs. B. F. Roberts of Birmingham and Mrs. Sophie M. Oldham of Birmingham, Ala.
