Concord Green Members Open Gardens for Tour

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

Concord Green Garden Club members recently gathered in the picturesque garden of the Wallace McWhirters of Lampport Lane to admire the newly completed patio before beginning their trek through the members' gardens in the subdivision.

The "garden walk" represented all phases of gardening, lighting and patios. Formal plantings were found in the gardens of Mrs. Donald Maunders; an interesting brick patio gave ideas at the Richard Garrison home; natural and informal plantings were featured at the William Lees; and a traditional colonial flower garden and rose gardens at the residence of Mrs. Donald Hite.

The cool, shaded garden of the John Keenans proved interesting as did a beautiful garden pool and waterfall at the home of Mrs. Fred Arcari where refreshments were served.

Cohosting the party 16 couples were Mrs. John Keenan and Mrs. Wallace McWhirter. This was the last garden club meeting for the group until September.

SYLVAN GLEN Country Club was the setting for the annual luncheon and election of officers of the Kern Lake Garden Club on Tuesday afternoon.

On the slate of officers for the new year beginning in September are president for the second year, Mrs. Louis Cicchetti of Parkman Drive; vice president, Mrs. Eric Wiltshire, of Masefield Court; secretary, Miss Martha Burns of Parkman Drive; and treasurer, Mrs. Harold Edmonds of Kernway Drive.

Mrs. Edmonds and Mrs. Arthur Olson presented prizes to many of the members during the luncheon.

A "MEXICAN EVENING" was cohosted by a group of area residents after their recent trip south of the border. The recreation room of the Howard Hartmans of Townhill Drive was gallily decorated in bright colors, cactus and sombreroes, giving the full-course Mexican dinner the atmosphere needed.

Cohosting the party 16 couples were the John Vogts of Charnwood Drive, the Robert Ruggs of Rayburn Drive, and the Gunther Kemps of Grosse Pointe

WOODS.

On their recent trip to Mexico the four couples visited Mexico City for three days and silver mines at Toco and Acapulco before their return to Mexico City. In between their flights they rented an eight-passenger station wagon for their sightseeing trips. The group also decided on a stay at a San Jose, Peru, resort.

On the third Mexican trip for the Ruggs and the fourth for the Kemps. The group is now planning on a trip to Europe next spring.

SIX YEARS ago the Richard Hims of Fairford Drive bought a picture-postcard island in the Georgian Bay area and gave it the name of "Emily Isle" after their daughter, Emily. The family has since spent six summer vacations on the island, an acre of wilderness and tranquility. A boat will be added to the setting this summer and will carry the name of "Mike" after their six-year-old son.

Arriving last week from Pasadena, Calif., for a visit was Mrs. Robert Honeycutt, mother of Mrs. James Brown of Meadowlane Court. She is dividing her visit with area relatives and attended the graduation of her granddaughter, Miss Katherine Bengtson, from Farmington High School.

AFTER FIVE grandsons, the Elmer Kestlys of Rouge Circle Drive are happily announcing the birth of their first granddaughter, Jeanne Mary Devernine, on June 2. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Devernine of Monsey, N. Y.

On Friday Mrs. Kestly departed for Monsey where she will spend a month with the family which include grandsons John, 4, and Kenneth, 2.

The Frank Peters of Whittier Drive and children Judy, John, Frank and Linda, departed for their three-week vacation. They will visit Washington, D.C., and Lauderdale-By-The-Sea in Florida. Another family and their four children will join the caravan to the south.

THE MERRITT ELLIOTTs of Rouge Circle Drive are looking forward to the arrival of their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Richard A. Johnson and granddaughter, Debbie Sue, from Fyrdall Air Force Base in Florida.

The Johnsons will be here visiting the Elliotts' and Johnsons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson of Kirkshire Drive, Birmingham, before his departure in August for a year's duty in Vietnam. Mrs. Johnson, the former Kay Elliott, and her daughter will make their home with the Elliotts until the lieutenant's return in 1965.

A "GAY NINETIES Ice Cream Social" will take place in the garden of the Oliver Stuarts of Meadowlane Court on Friday evening. The 50 guests, all arriving in the turn of the century costumes, are of the Bloomfield Baptist Church adult class.

To add to the old-fashioned atmosphere Mrs. Stuart and her daughter, cohostess Mrs. Michael Uzelac of Satterlee Drive, have chosen red, pink and white as their decorations. A red and white striped awning will cover the patio, the tables will be dressed in red and white table cloths and buckets of pink carnations will accent the patio and areas of the garden. The homemade ice cream will be made in freezer buckets with everyone giving the handles a few turns.

'Retirement Fashions' Top Birthday Celebration

By ELLI BLUMMAN
MI 7-1465

Jerry Vanek of Royal Oak.

SEVENTEEN WOMEN gathered at the Mayfair Lane home

Plans for a birthday celebration which took place last afternoon began two months ago when Mrs. Horace D'Angelo of Hillview Lane and her sister Mrs. Rose Hansen decided to honor their mother, Mrs. O. C. Bowyer, a resident of Sherwood Hall.

This unusual birthday party included punch and cake for all the patients and staff, most of which was prepared by Mrs. Bowyer's granddaughters Diana D'Angelo and Judy Hansen.

The girls also were among the 13 who modeled "retirement fashions" for the group in a most unusual presentation. Among the outfits were a dinner gown, complete with paper plates; silverware; a crackerbox handbag; a print dress fashioned of newspaper; and an afternoon tea dress covered with tea bags.

ALSO SHOWN was a spring cotton which featured real sprigging with cotton balls, a pair of slippers with real pins and a pillow hat covered with... I think you get the general idea.

The D'Angelos enjoy entertaining and the more the merrier. In May Mrs. D. entertained 20 neighborhood Girl Scout leaders and just last week had a group of district leaders at her home for a farewell party for Mrs. Jeanne Gasvoda.

On Memorial Day the D'Angelos had 19 of their immediate relatives in for cocktails before treating them to dinner at Oakland Hills and last week 30 of Diana's sixth grade classmates at Valley Woods were invited over for a picnic luncheon.

FORMER RESIDENTS Chris and Mark Speer arrived last Wednesday morning from Atlanta, Ga., in time to visit their old friends at Greenfield School which they left a year when their dad was transferred.

Chris, 12, is visiting the Boyd Morehead family of Kinross Road and Mark, 11, is with the Richard Blaumanns of Buckingham Road.

MR. AND MRS. David Thompson of Madoline Road entertained nine teachers last Friday evening at a combined double birthday party, shower and reunion.

The guests, Helen Clouthier, Rheta Fahl, Marjorie Graber, Shirley Hill, Theresa Miranda, Wanda Skirat, Sophia Susalla, Dorothea Zollinger and Donna Murphree all worked with Dave a year ago when he was acting principal of Trombly School in Detroit.

The Thompsons recently hosted Ted and Dee Ziemlak of Anchorage, Alaska, for several days, entertaining 33 at a picnic in their honor.

THE PHILIP Reillys and Michael, 5, of Kinross Road drove to South Bend, Ind., recently to see Barb's brother, William Bretzette, graduate from the University of Notre Dame.

On the same week end Michael J. Currier received his BA in business administration from Notre Dame also and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. McCann, brothers Dennis and Timothy Currier and grandmother Mrs. Thomas R. Flett, all of Kinross Road were there for the ceremonies.

Michael will attend the University of Michigan for graduate work this fall.

DR. MAYNARD Bailey and son Robert, who has just graduated from Our Lady Queen of Martyrs School, are taking a canoe and fishing trip at Canada Creek Ranch, Charles Densel, Jr., of Eastlady Drive will be Robert's guest on the trip.

Mrs. Bailey is working on the committee planning the 25th reunion of the University of Detroit Dental School's class of '39. The affair will take place at Menjo's on June 20 and among those attending will be Dr. and Mrs. William C. Whiteman of Southlawn Drive.

MR. AND MRS. Glenn L. Sawyer of Elizabeth Road have recently returned from a trip East which took them to Gettysburg on Memorial Day. After touring Philadelphia and Independence Hall, where they ran into TV celebrity Hans Conrard, they went on to the World's Fair.

After five days in New York they returned with their traveling companions, Mr. and Mrs.
