MR. AND MRS. George T. Ghasal entertained 80 friends and relatives Sunday afternoon at a patio cocktail buffet to celebrate the eighty-fourth birthday of Mrs. Benjamin W. Cooper, Mrs. Ghasal's mother. Also honored were son George, a recent graduate of Groves High School, and niece Mary Stiefel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Stiefel, who graduated from Gross Pointe High School.

Last week activities of Mr. and Mrs. Albert deSalle. Mrs. deSalle entertained at a luncheon for Helen Muir, writer connected with the Miami News who is doing a series of articles about Greenfield Village, the Detroit Institute of Arts and the deSalle's Little Gallery of Birmingham. Primuma Pandit of Bombay, India, who has been a scholarship student at the Cranbrook Academy of Art, was a houseguest of the deSalle's prior to her departure yesterday for New York to attend an International Craft Conference—whence she returns to Bombay to open her studio. Because of their busy lives, Peggy and Albert had it difficult to visit their east side friends—sooo . . . these friends came to them, as did Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sinclair of Grosse Pointe on Monday evening. But that's not all—they brought with them chilled cocktails, wine in the cooler, hors d'oeuvres, plus a gourmet dinner! Peggy and Albert furnished a poolside setting and the good company of Mrs. Pandit and others.

Honors, Awards Bestowed On-Local Scout Troops

By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Just as another school year came to a close so did the culmination of the scouting activities throughout the Bloomfield North area.

Among the many courts of honor and courts of award for both the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts was that of Boy Scout Troop 1022. It held the court of honor on Tuesday evening, June 9, at Conant School.

Highest honor of the evening went to Tom Stanford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Stanford of Foxcroft. Tom is the first scout of the original Troop 1022 to receive an Eagle award. He became a member of the troop at the time of its inception, 3 1/2 years ago, and has earned 28 merit badges in that period of time. Only other member of the troop with the Eagle rank is Bob Koch. He received his Eagle award shortly after joining the troop a year ago.

DON LAU, troop committee chairman, gave the welcoming introduction and announced that Clint McDonald will be in charge of the explorer post.

The "Stars" with Bob Westfall as patrol leader, were acclaimed the outstanding patrol and received Boy Scout knives for their efforts.

Many activity award beads were presented for outings such as the Pine River canoe trip June 6 and 7-22-mile hike on Wilderness Trail, Holly Recreation area, May 16 and 17; Howell overnight April 18 and 19; Proud Lake overnight March 21; and the Wing Lake skating outing Feb. 22.

Gordon Smith, Bob Westfall and Bob Jessup received badges for the mile swim. Service stars went to Tom Sandcock, Jerry McDonald, Chuck Brown and Dick Dali for 2 years; David Lau for 2 years; and Joe Goldhof, Bob Jessup and David Koch for 1 year.

SURPRISE WARRANTS were awarded to David Koch and Stuart Goldhof as buglers; Joe Goldhof as librarian; Steve Jones as scribe; and Bob Jessup as quartermaster.

Instructors warrants were awarded to Rick Stanford, first aid; Norm Spooner, cooking; Gordon Smith, stars; and Tom Hadden, signaling.

Nine scouts became tenderfoots; four became second class; and three became first class scouts. Robert Westfall and Gordon Smith both received their Stars. Thirty-six merit badges were awarded to 18 of the scouts.

SPECIAL GUESTS of the court of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bedell and Mr. Harold Hickman. Mr. Bedell is principal of the Bloomfield Hills Junior High School and Mr. Hickman is neighborhood commissioner.

At the closing of the court of honor, retiring Scoutmaster Russ Stanford was presented with a plaque in appreciation of his service. It was presented by Vince Sandcock on behalf of the scouts and the scout committee.

GIRL SCOUT Troop 433 held its court of awards on June 8 at Conant School.

Mrs. Donald Burch, Girl Scout leader and her assistant, Mrs. A. C. Clark, presented the following awards:

Twenty-six graders received the Sign of the Star; 13 fifth graders received the Sign of the Arrow; 27 girls received cooking badges; 20 received the drawing and painting badges; 8 girls achieved their troop dramatics award; 17 were awarded the health aid and five the home, health and safety badge.

Other awards included 4 scouts received the pet's badge; nine the toymaker; seven the musician; one each the rambler, homemaker and adventurer and all 48 members of the troop received the backyard fun award.

THE SCOUTS presented rose bushes to Mrs. Jerome Cumiskey and Mrs. Richard Bannister in appreciation of their help throughout the past year. Mrs. George Thomas was presented a gift as a memento of the recent camping trip. The scouts also presented a gift, thanks to Mrs. Burch and Mrs. Clark.

At the Bridging Ceremony of Cadette Troop 995, Junior Girl Scout Troop 433, and Brownie Troop 413 and 954 held at Conant School on June 9, 20 sixth graders were bridged into Troop 995 and 16 third grade Brownies flew up into Troop 433.

GIRL SCOUT Troop 194 of Wing Lake School has been very active throughout the past year. They started the year with a cookout at Kensington Park and have completed several hikes since then. They held a court of awards tea for the mothers recently. They entertained the Girl Scouts of Troop 433, Conant School, in February at a sack lunch and ice-skating party.

During the year every girl in the troop has participated in a flag ceremony. In addition to earning many badges, they have worked together on service projects and made Christmas gifts for the handicapped children. The troop conducted their activities with a campout at Indianwood on June 6.

JUNE 19 was the date that Cadette Troop 995 recognized their scouts at a court of awards.

Linda McVetty, Claudia Duncan, Kathy Schum received the first aid to animals badge. Margie Van Haltern, Susan Owens, Ellen Bowers and Nancy Rogers were awarded the first aid badge. Games leader badges went to Doreen Britton and Kathy Schmale. Kathy also earned a dressmaker badge.

Twelve of the troop will attend Arrowhead primitive camping at Camp Narrin from June 16 to 19. They will live in tents and cook all food over campfires and go on one all day hikes under the supervision of Mrs. Gordon Bolding. They will also be accompanied by Mrs. Francis Gadd, Mrs. T. N. Duncan, cadette leader, and Mrs. C. J. Van Haltern.
