

Brinkmans Attend Wedding in Illinois

By ELIZABETH VAN LOAN
MI 7-2324

June, the month of brides and bridegrooms, found the Robert Brinkmans with their children, Joanne and Craig, in Harvard, Ill., over the week and to attend the wedding of his niece, Susan Brinkman, to Matthew McArthur. Joanne was a bridesmaid for her cousin.

Returning to Birmingham for a visit with the Brinkmans were his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Cook and their three daughters from Des Moines, Ia., who also were at the wedding.

The Cooks will have a chance to visit here with another sister and her husband, the Mervin Christensen of Bensenville, Street.

A LUNAR Saturday night will wind up the season for the Pine Lake Estates branch, W.N.F.G.A. Members and their husbands will meet at 6 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Peter Thomas, 4053 Aberdeen Court.

Cochairmen Mrs. William Grobes and Mrs. John O'Sullivan and their committee have planned a varied and tempting menu.

In charge of the main dishes (sukiyaki, sweet-sour shrimp, and chicken) are Mrs. Hugh Ireland, Mrs. George Bennett and Mrs. Frank Todd.

MRS. O'SULLIVAN has charge of the appetizers and Mrs. Edwin Koepke will take care of the rice, fried noodles and sweet potato dishes.

Assorted fruit dishes will be offered for dessert, with Mr. William Van Lierop in charge of this department.

Decorations will be executed by Mrs. William Sharkey and Mrs. Dale Girdler.

ANDREW JAMES Henkel was baptized at Christ Church Cranbrook Sunday morning. Luckier than most babies in this era of widely scattered families, Andrew was surrounded by three generations of his family.

In addition to his parents, the Frederick Henkels of Quanton Road, and his brother and two sisters, there were in attendance his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Newell, and two uncles and two aunts, Mr. and Mrs. John Vander Roost and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Warner, all of Birmingham.

Mr. Vander Roost and Mr. Warner are Andrew's godfathers. Also present for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore of Royal Oak, Mrs. Moore is the baby's godmother.

GUESTS LAST week of the Henry Cassis of Middleton Drive were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Maron and their sons, Tom and Andy, of Los Angeles, Calif.

The Marons were residents of Turner Road before moving to the west coast two years ago. Tom's graduation from De Pauw University brought the Marons to the Midwest at this time. Andy joined his family from West Point where he has completed his first year.

Saturday was graduation day at Our Lady of Refuge School for Ralph Clayton, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Clayton, Jr., of Blackburn Drive.

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW night Mr. and Mrs. Roger Davis of Heather Lane with his mother, Mrs. Charles Anderson of Clearwater, Fla., will be in the audience in Wayne Auditorium, Wayne, watching daughter Susan, 9, dance in a production of "Hazel and Gretel."

The show is being put on by the Miss Harriet School of the Dance, Livonia, where Susan has been a ballet pupil for the past four years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drake of Haven Road leave tomorrow for a weekend in Boston.

AN ENTRY by Mrs. Richard Hamster of Darramond Road in the recent flower show of the Walnut Lake branch, W.N.F.G.A. was awarded best of show. A second blue ribbon was also won by Mrs. Hamster.

Blue ribbons also went to Mrs. Walter Gorman and Mrs. Richard Bergmann. The latter won a second blue ribbon for a table arrangement tagged "Halls of Ivy," suitable for a graduation party.

Red ribbons went to Mrs. Henry Hall who took two, Mrs. G. F. Robert, Mrs. Stewart Schultz, Mrs. William Schrader and Mrs. W. E. Loll.

THOSE AWARDED yellow ribbons were Mrs. Donald Finke (two ribbons), Mrs. Henry Hall, also two, Mrs. W. L. McCane, Mrs. John Kristoffy and Mrs. Neal Lund.

In the hospital horticulture exhibit, entries by Pontiac State Hospital patients took five ribbons.

Entry chairman was Mrs. John Evans.

Mrs. Robert and Mrs. Leo Miller were co-hostesses at a pre-judging coffee that morning. At a luncheon for the judges at Franklin House following the presentation of awards, the hostesses were Mrs. Robert, Mrs. Loll, Mrs. Finke and Mrs. Jansen.

THE JUDGES were Mesdames N. A. Thurston, E. W. Frank, H. R. Smith, Frank H. Whittney, Joseph F. Dworski, John R. Wais, Harold Pinales, John Veech and Gordon Anderson.

The paintings enhancing the decor of the show at Bloomfield Art Association were the work of Joyce Kristoffy, daughter of Mrs. Kristoffy.

THERE WERE 11 candidates out of the 41 pupils comprising the sixth grade at Walnut Lake School for the annual Nola Peasley Memorial Awards.

Judged on scholarship, citizenship and service to the school, they were Dale Heinzelman, Matthew Kimbrough, Leigh Smith, Chris Nixon, Mike Krause, Gayle Butler, Nancy Fowlie, Connie Gorsuch, Lauris Perrin, Kathleen Leaf and Connie Quastio.

Chosen as the most outstanding girl and boy in the class in the final selection were Kathleen Leaf, daughter of the Rodney Leaf, of Sunnycrest Drive; and Mike Krause, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Krause of Malibu Drive.

A wonderful summer for the family of the busy DAD who wants the best for his loved ones. Mothers, small children, teenagers and the college crowd "HAVE A BALL!" Fathers join them after work and on weekends. Don't waste the "never to return" priceless years when your children are growing up.

For a few qualified families of approximately the same economic, social, cultural and educational backgrounds. Most of our families work for the "Big Three", various advertising agencies and local businesses. You probably have friends who will be delighted to tell you all about us. No charge for looking, dreaming and talking.

AVERAGE FAMILY SPENDS LESS THAN $200 PER YEAR—WINTER SPORTS, TOO

You would probably be both surprised and proud of your associations out here. A very relaxed, warm and informal place.

Being a private facility, it's mandatory that a screening committee pass upon the acceptability of all applicants.

Pay us a visit soon. No obligation either way. Drive Orchard Lake Road to Keego Harbor light, Turn North follow the signs to 4300 Cass - Elizabeth Road—or Telephone 682-3231 for an appointment.

Open daily 9 a.m. until sunset. Ted Wade, Managing Director

P.S. Good boating facilities are really scarce. Highway trailer boaters miss 50% of boating fun. Don't wait too long.
