The bride-elect was graduated from DePauw University, where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta social sorority, Kappa Pi art honorary, and Duzer Du dramatic honorary. Her fiance graduated from Mankato State College, Minn., where he received a B.S. degree. The wedding is planned for August 30 at Lake Nokomis Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Granville Bosworth of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Charlotte Ann, to Charles Anderson Follis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Follis, also of Birmingham. The bride-elect is a graduate of Seaholm High School and attended Western Michigan University. Her fiance is also a graduate of Seaholm High School and attended Sol Ross State College in Alpine, Tex. The couple will exchange vows on Aug. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil F. Johnson announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Carol, to Randolph Howard Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Earl Fields of Grosse Ile. The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Nursing, and was affiliated with Collegiate Sorority. Her fiance is a graduate of Dartmouth College, where he was affiliated with The Tabard, and attended the University of Michigan School of Business Administration. An August 8 wedding is planned.

Anniversary Is Celebrated By Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Sura of Detroit and Elizabeth Lake, who were married in Yonkers, N. Y. June 10, 1914, were guests of honor at a surprise dinner party given by their three children last Sunday.

Hosts at the golden wedding anniversary dinner were Judge Ted Sura of Beverly Hills, Eugene Sura of Lake Orion together with their brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. John Thompson.

THE SENIOR SURAS, who thought their invitation to the Thompsons' home on Walnut Lake was for a quiet family dinner, found 60 guests waiting to greet them.

The group included their eight grandchildren and friends and relatives from N. Y., Wisc., and points in between.

August Rites

Marlan McCosh, daughter of Mr. Frederick I. McCosh of Southfield and the late Mrs. McCosh, is engaged to Richard A. Sperring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Sperring of Birmingham. The bride-elect was graduated from the Katharine Gibbs School in 1962. She is presently employed in Kalamazoo. The bridegroom-elect is a senior at Western Michigan University. Following graduation, he will be commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Army Reserve. An Aug. 29 wedding is planned.

Party Surprises Seaholm Teacher

By ELEANOR NELSEN MI 7-0056

Music and laughter reigned at the surprise party given on June 13 for John Petrakis, a teacher at Seaholm High School. It was held in his home on S. Williamsbury Lane.

Mr. Petrakis was chairman of the Junior-Senior Field Day held at the high school recently and was honored out of appreciation for his services. More than 100 students, under the leadership of Brant Conley were present at the party to socialize with Mr. Petrakis.

They presented Petrakis with several personal gifts and a radio and then danced on the driveway to the music of the Downbeats, led by Steve Lyman.

MR. AND MRS. Fenton Luttkie of Greenwich Drive and their daughter, Nancy, returned home on June 1 after a 10-day motoring trip through the New England States.

Mr. Luttkie was particularly interested in visiting Dartmouth, his alma mater. Lexington, Concord and Gloucester were all on their itinerary and also Mystic Seaport, Conn., which is an old reconstructed fishing village which has an old whaling ship to be boarded by visitors.

While they were in the East they also visited the World's Fair in New York.

IT WAS A leisurely motoring trip that took Mr. and Mrs. William Dashiell of S. Cranbrook Cross Road to the east for a week's vacation. They left on May 28 and proceeded to Cape Cod and the Boston area.

One day was spent with Mrs. Dashiell's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard McGovern. While staying at the Nauset Inn, a legend inn of the Cape Cod area they met many other couples from General Motors (Mr. Dashiell's place of employment) and enjoyed a beach party with 12 couples.

Jeeps were used for rides along the beach which provided a great deal of fun. On their return trip they visited Niagara Falls as a sort of refresher course.

While her husband Jack attended the Water and Waste Convention at Boyne Falls from June 7 through June 10, Mrs. William Dashiell of Farmingdale Drive and their children spent the time in Midland visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Paul Schreiber.

ON THURSDAY, June 11, Mrs. William Busch of S. Glengarry and Mrs. Robert Koerber of S. Cranbrook Cross joined forces and hosted an "out of school" party for nine of the students of St. Regis.

Mr. Koerber's home and backyard pool was the scene of recreation while the Busch home was the scene of refreshments. Attending the party were Tommy Graham, Mike Busch, Kevin and Keith Koerber, Bob Johnson, Bob Burns, Roger Nelsen, Glen Bonaventura, Tom VanBuesen.

MR. AND MRS. Hugh Claff of S. Glengarry hosted a cocktail party on June 13 for several couples who attended the Cranbrook-Maple Association dinner-dance that same evening. Guests at the Clark home were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frahier, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Passavant and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tuller. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. James Dowdell and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wiethoff.

WHEN CLUBS reconvene in the fall at the helm of the Parents Club of St. Regis will be the new president, Ted Monahan. Other board members are Dorothy Bracken, vice president; Millicent Worrell, secretary; William McLaren, treasurer; William and Virginia O'Brien, past president; Richard and Margie Rotach, school service; James and Janet Couzens, ways and means; Donald and Mary Jane Biering, home-school; Lawrence and Helen Nagle, membership; Gerald and Patricia Stannard, social; William and Joan Flaherty, program; James and Florence Hayes, publicity; Steve and Jeanette Gromek, athletic; Sid and Helen McKenna, curtain club; Virginia Flick, bridge tournament; Frank Miller, Boy Scouts and Rosemary Murphy, Girl Scouts.

St. James Sets Scene For Wedding

Charlotte Diane Braden and John William Howell were married Saturday at 5:30 p.m. at St. James Episcopal Church in Birmingham. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Braden Jr., 1048 Erskine, Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Westley of Big Beaver Road, Birmingham, and the late Mr. Howell.

The bride wore a china silk and French lace gown enhanced with a lace-trimmed chapel train. A chapel-length veil trimmed with French lace was set on an open crown.

WEARING FLOOR-length beige Irish linen gowns were Deborah Eckley, maid of honor, Mrs. Jean Douglas, Mrs. Sue Rossberry and Linda Braden, bridesmaids.

Bill Cheer of Birmingham served as best man. Ushers were Dale Rosenberry, Gary Shack and Tom Wreesman.

The couple will make their home in East Lansing until December when they will graduate from Michigan State University. They will postpone their honeymoon until September when they will visit the World's Fair.

Society Dept. deadline for all orders, as well as wedding and engagements announcement is 5 p.m. on the Friday preceding Thursday publication.

SHORTLY BEFORE the bell rang sounding the end of school for the present year, the students of the third grade at Meadow Lake School surprised their teacher, Rebecca Wood, with a shower that had been arranged by their mothers.

Miss Wood was married Saturday to Frank Spencer Perry. The other teachers in the school held a novel shower in which they gave the bride-to-be not only recipes but also the ingredients needed for them.

On June 5, Mrs. Morgan Layson of Nell Road in Grosse Pointe hosted a miscellaneous shower for Rebecca and on June 11, Roberts, Rebecca's twin sister was hostess of a spinster dinner. The other bridal attendants were guests and had a preview showing of the bride's trousseau.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Perry on Friday, June 19 at the Detroit Yacht Club. Out of town guests who attended the wedding were the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Spencer from Colchester, Ont., and the groom's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles Perry of Detroit.

Rebecca's third grade class from the Meadow Lake School were also guests at the ceremony.
