Vogels, Lenhards Spend 2 1/2 Weeks on Cruiser

By GLORIA JESSUP MA 6-3257

The "Rayhat," the new 43-foot FaceMaker cruiser of the Raymond A. Vogels, was home for two and one half weeks for the Roger Vogels of Sunnybrook and the Leo Lenhards of East California.

The Roger Vogels and the Lenhards joined their parents the senior Vogels at Egg Harbor, N.J., to board the new cruiser. For the christening voyage of the new "Rayhat," the three couples cruised the Ambruse channel, the Hudson River and the 36 locks on the Erie Barge Canal terminating at Buffalo.

At Buffalo the Roger Vogels and the Lenhards returned to the Lathrup area and the Raymond Vogels were joined by parents of Mrs. Robert Raitsch of Bungalow and continued their travels.

AND, SPEAKING OF the Raitschs, they made a flying trip to Washington, D.C., and Fairfax, Va., over last week end. They were the house guests of Capt. and Mrs. Cook Cleland.

It was a week end of happiness and sadness for it was a "good-bye" to the Clelands for a two-year period. Capt. Cleland is being transferred overseas shortly.

IT WAS a "Happy Father's Day" in the Edmund Viale home on Lathrup Blvd. with an abundance of guests. Daughter Joann, who recently graduated from Aquinas College in Grand Rapids, was home for the celebration. She has been working in Grand Rapids since her graduation May 31 and will teach in Grand Rapids in the fall.

Another daughter, Carol Viale, who is a sophomore at Aquinas College was on hand with her house guest and college classmate, Nancy Florides of Lima, Peru. Nancy is an exchange student who is spending the summer as a guest of the Viale family.

Miss Christine Bracco, sister of Mrs. Viale, is also visiting with the family. She is here from her home in Calumet, Mich.

Also helping Mr. Viale celebrate the eventful day were dinner guests, Al Hess of Highland, Ill. Mrs. Mary Burke and Tom Zanella of Grand Rapids.

THERE'S NEWS about the "Baby Buggies of Bungalow and Bloomfield." In four houses, within four weeks, three new babies became residents of Lathrup Village.

First was Laura Raitsch, born March 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Raitsch of Bungalow.

Next was Kristen Elizabeth, born March 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cole around the corner on Bloomfield Drive. She weighed 7 pounds, 3 ounces and was welcomed home by Brian, 8, and Gary, 6.

Christopher John Dakin, broke up the pink routine, when he was born April 11, weighing 9 pounds 1 ounce, to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Dakin of Bungalow. Awaiting Christopher's arrival were Dennis, 15, Barbara, 13, JoAnn, 10, and Mary, 16, who is away at School.

MR. AND MRS. Frank Hoffman of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hoffman of Rockland, Mich., and their children, David and Darlene, were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. York of Wiltshire this past week end.

They arrived to attend the wedding of their nephew John York, son of the Frank Yorks. John married Janice Gravenstreter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gravenstreter of Duxbury Lane on Saturday.

TOMORROW evening, the Optimists of Southfield will gather with their wives at the Frontier House in Farmington for an installation party. The installation will be handled by Jerry LaBlanc, new governor for the Michigan district. Mr. LaBlanc will also be the guest speaker.

The new slate of officers being inducted consists of Wayne McDonnell, president; E. Christensen and I. E. Hahn, vice presidents; G. Wardman, corresponding secretary; C. W. Bell, treasurer; George Lieber, financial secretary; and Robert Coffey, program and publicity.

The board of directors includes Leon Avedisian, Mike Rolph, A.

J. M. Yorks In Bermuda

MRS. J. M. YORK
