

Birthday Celebration Has Circus Theme

By ELIZABETH YATES
MI 6-1682

There are forever new ideas, themes and trends when planning children's birthday parties in the North Adams area. The Thomas Foster of Ansonia is teaming up with a "circus theme" in planning their daughter Cindy's ninth birthday on Sunday, that was truly a "Texas style."

A week before, colorful mimeographed sheets made up to look like circus posters went out to the homes of 44 area guests, all of Cindy's class at Eastover School and Brownie Troop 425, advertising the big day.

On arriving at the party Sunday morning at 10, the 44 children dressed in odd clothing as per the invitation's request were greeted by Cindy and her dad, dressed as the famous Emmet Kelly. Another clown, Wayne White of Pontiac, and a court jester, Richard Carson of Oxford, assisted in making the children in a waiting bus and departed for King's Animal Park near Richmond for a day of fun.

There were pony rides, carnival rides, Ole McDonald's Farm, the children's zoo, and big circus acts to delight the enthusiastic group. A catered picnic lunch was served before returning to the Foster home at 4 p.m.

CHARLES E. RANDAU of Far Hill Drive and his fiance, Miss Barbara Boughner of Highland Park, will be attending showers and parties next month honoring them and their approaching marriage on Aug. 1.

An afternoon tea and household shower will take place Sunday afternoon at the Berkeley home of Mrs. Donald McGeachy. Twenty-five friends and relatives are expected. The wedding will be held at the Metropolitan Church in Detroit at 4 p.m. in the afternoon with reception following at the church.

At present Charles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Randau, is busy completing his exams at Wayne State University where he is a junior in law school. Miss Boughner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boughner, is a teacher in the Highland Park School System.

ANOTHER COUPLE looking toward a busy summer now that their wedding date has been set for Aug. 15 are Ronald George Yates, son of Dr. and Mrs. George Yates of Rouge Circle Drive, and his fiance, Kathryn Kesti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver J. Kesti of Pontiac. The wedding will take place at Bethesda Lutheran Church in Detroit with reception following at Betaford Inn.

Ronald was graduated from Michigan Central College on June 7 and plans to return in the fall for his master's degree while Kathryn who also attends Michigan Central has another year and a half to go for her bachelor's degree.

A bridal shower honoring the couple was given at the college recently.

Another bridal shower was hosted in Livonia Sunday. On Friday evening Mrs. E. Hloock of Farmington will entertain at a bathroom shower.

MRS. GEORGE MALLY of Upton Road spent the past two months in Rome, Italy, visiting her daughter, Susan, who is teaching English to refugees who were behind the Iron Curtain and to misplaced persons.

Susan left last July for Brussels and then traveled to Rome in September where she has been affiliated with Organization Rehabilitation Training. In July Susan plans to change jobs when she will teach children of air force families for the next few months.

While Susan was working Mrs. Mally found her way around Rome, spent a week on the Isle of Capri and attended by invitation the first Anniversary Mass of the death of Pope John.

THE FRED PANTILLONS of Rouge Circle Drive have just returned home after a two-week sojourn through the east. The first week was spent visiting the New York World's Fair and attending a candy convention. The second week was taken up with bass and trout fishing in Bangor, Me.

The Pantillons recently took another scenic trip through the west for two weeks. They toured Phoenix and other parts of Arizona and enjoyed a few days in Las Vegas during their travels.

THE THOMAS COLLEYS and children, Carol and Peter, of Parkman Drive journeyed to Galesburg, Ill. for a week's visit with Mrs. Colley's mother, Mrs. E. E. Eldridge.

THREE NEW neighbors have moved to Meadowvale Drive, Hickory Heights, within the past three weeks.

The Robert Browns and children, Scott and Margot, moved from Chagrin Falls, O. Mr. Brown is a sales representative with Celanese Chemical Co.

Bridge, golf and bowling are among their interests.

The Dana Watermans and 17-year-old son, Mark, moved from Pembroke Drive, just a mile away. Waterman is a styling engineer with Chrysler Corp. Members of family are great do-it-yourself fans with remodeling and furniture on their current list. They are also enthusiastic campers. Another interest of the Watermans is astronomy.

In August they will be welcoming Federico Oliveri of Turin, Italy, an American Field Service exchange student who will live with them and attend Sealhorn High School with Mark in their senior year this fall.

The Watermans entertained 40 at a family reunion and surprise birthday party for Mrs. Waterman's mother, Mrs. Ann Spearow of Detroit, who was 75 years old Sunday. The buffet party was a complete success as Mrs. Spearow thought she was coming to view a sports car.

Another family moving from close by are the Donald Howells of Janesville, Wis. is Mrs. John Francis, sister of Mrs. Howell. In July they plan to spend their vacation relaxing at a cottage in East Tawas.

European Trip Is Planned By Local Foursome

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips of 908 Hazel St. are leaving June 29 for a seven-week visit to Scotland, England and Wales.

Accompanying Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are Mrs. Rachel Provan and Mrs. David Rolfe, sisters of Mrs. Phillips.

Mr. Phillips arrived in this country 40 years ago from Birmingham, England, and this is his first visit home since then. He will be visiting three sisters and a brother, and Mrs. Phillips and her sisters will visit their brother in Scotland when they have not seen for 32 years.
