College News

'JANE FORESTER OF '64'
 Sara (Sally) J. John, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Colin H. John of 783 Puritan, Birmingham, was selected as "Jane Forester of 1964" at the recent Forester Day activities at Lake Forest College, Ill. She was selected from among nine candidates and the runners-up became her court.

Miss John, who has completed her sophomore year and is majoring in sociology at Lake Forest, was selected as a Patterson Scholar at the recent Honors Day convocation for scholastic excellence.

SUMMER SERVICE CORPS
 Virginia Keim of 1712 Winthrop Lane, Birmingham will be one of more than 600 college students and young adults who have volunteered as a summer service corps for work under the auspices of the Board of National Missions, United Presbyterian Church, this year.

She left on June 17 to participate in Chicago's Beacon Neighborhood House summer program which continues through August 22. Her project involves service in the Christian Education Day Camp program where she will be working with junior high school students. Virginia is a member of the First Presbyterian Church here and will be a junior at the College of Wooster in the fall.

ADVANCE VISIT
 More than 3,500 freshmen who will be entering Western Michigan University for the first time next fall are getting a two-day advance taste of campus life this summer.

Under the direction of Dr. Donald Davis, director of the "Countdown Bureau," the freshmen are coming to the campus to learn something of their future programs of study, to meet with their counselors and to see a bit of the campus.

When they return to the campus in mid-September they will be completely registered and have their fees all paid.

Among those that have visited the campus from Birmingham are Marsha Bradford, Bedonna Guymon, Carolyn Free, Jo L. Lloyd, Susan Droege and Nancy A. Barlow.

Residents of Bloomfield Hills that have visited the campus are Nancy A. Yovich, Sheryl H. Mistell and David D. Walker.

PHI BETA KAPPA
 Carol Herman of Birmingham was elected to Phi Beta Kappa during the year 1963-64 at the University of South Dakota.

Miss Herman is majoring in Spanish. She was active in Delta Phi, Sigma Iota Pres., Honors seminar, Alpha Lambda Delta, SNEA and Modern Foreign Language Club.

SCHOOL NEWCOMER
 Mary Christine Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Miller, Sr., of 1387 Clasterfield, Birmingham, has indicated she will attend Monticello College this fall. Miss Miller is a graduate of Seaboard High School, where she was a member of the choir and Aqua Belles.

HONORS COLLEGE
 Area residents are among 63 students at Albion College enrolled in a new six-week summer honors college consisting of 12 different work projects.

Students and their projects are Michael von Guttenberg, "Bibliographical Theory and Practice"; April DeVall, "Frontiers of Economic and Social Potentials in Albion"; David Kitchen and Robert Wood, "Field Investigation of Oceanic Birds"; Nancy Little, "Ceramics-Sculpture Workshop"; and Howard Walker, "Human Memory."

Rings, Vows Unite Couple

A double ring, candlelight ceremony at the First Methodist Church in Birmingham united Rebecca Wood and Frank Spencer Perry in marriage June 20. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Arnold Runkel.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benson Jarvis Wood of Cedar Hill Drive. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Perry of Wimbleton Drive. The bride wore a white linen empire design gown with a train. The bride and the train were designed with satin appliques. The bride's twin sister, Roberta, was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Patricia Graff of Pitt, Mrs. Richard Campbell and Marilyn Perry, both of Birmingham. They wore identical floor-length gowns of pink linen.

Steven Perry, brother of the groom, was the best man, and ushers included Richard Campbell, Birmingham; William Newport, Chicago; Edward Maples, Grosse Pointe and Michael Valzook, Royal Oak.

Close friends and relatives of the bride attended the reception held in the church parlor following the ceremony.

Shortly after, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon through northern Michigan and upon their return will make their home in Royal Oak. The bride's traveling costume was a beige linen sheath with bone accessories.

Honorary Degrees

William I. Denman, Jr., 1870 Redding Road, Birmingham, has been selected by the trustees of Cleary College in Ypsilanti, to receive an honorary doctor of science in business administration degree at the College's 80th annual commencement in Ypsilanti, Saturday. The degrees will be conferred by Donald M. Silkworth, chairman of the Cleary College board.

Teachers and prospective teachers of elementary school science who attended the two-week Science Workshop at Indiana University.

The workshop was designed to promote improvement in the teaching of science, and covered various aspects of the natural sciences in lectures, laboratory work and field sessions. The program emphasized planning and development of science experiments, use of audio-visual aids, and the organization and administration of outdoor science education projects such as youth gardens and nature centers.
