

4 NEW AWARDS

again . . . national winner among 8,000 weeklies

The Eccentric has received many awards . . . and each time we do, we feel a renewed glow of pride; not only for our organization but also in the community that has made possible our type of paper. We're very proud of these national and state awards, which now amount to 27 awards since 1960.

This unparalleled record of achievement by a weekly newspaper is the reason, we believe, why Birminghamites respect The Eccentric for its integrity . . . follow it for its accuracy and enthusiastically commend it for its readability. Accordingly, it has become the outstanding community medium for both readers and advertisers.
