

Boyko-Barnes Rites Read In B'ham

MRS. W. J. BOYKO

A camping trip to the eastern United States followed the marriage of Lucie Marie Barnes to William John Boyko Saturday at 3 p. m. at the Congregational Church of Birmingham.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mrs. Josephine Briley Barnes of Bloomfield Hills and Norman Robert Barnes of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. John Boyko of 10238 Beacomfield, Detroit.

THE BRIDE wore a flared dome organza gown enhanced with a sashina neckline and chapel train. Embroidered organza motifs and Venice lace clusters were applied on the gown, and a satin bow accented the waist.

A spray of orange blossoms amidst fine seed and crystals secured her bouffant bouffant veil. She carried phlox orchids with camellia foliage.

ford, O. was the matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Josephine Schake of College Station, Tex., and Linda Firth of Grosse Pointe Farms. They wore pink floor-length gowns and carried baskets of daisies.

The groom asked Bruce Morrison of Evanston, Ill., to serve as best man. Ushers were Kenneth Mike and John Clonca.

The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor.

Heirloom Mantilla Worn for Ceremony

Lisa Bodor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laszlo Bodor of Birmingham was married Saturday morning to Nicholas Goodenough Spicer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William John Spicer of Farmington.

The ceremony took place in St.

MRS. N. G. SPICER

Hugo of the Hills, with Right Rev. Edward A. Fournier officiating. A garden reception followed at the Bodor home on Bingham Road.

Isabel Woodcock Bodor was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert W. Strong, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Donald D. Shapiro, both of Chicago. The three flower girls were Katherine Lowell Shields, the bride's cousin; Elizabeth Addie Spicer, the bridegroom's sister, and Lisa Congden Van Dusen.

THE BRIDE'S brother, Nicholas Arthur Bodor, served as best man. Ushers were Charles Lumen Spicer, the bridegroom's brother; Paul Woodcock Bodor and Howard Morrison Weeks, the bride's brother and cousin, respectively, and Donald D. Shapiro.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory silk organza gown with applique of deep ivory Chantilly lace. The dress, fashioned with a deep neckline, short sleeves and controlled belt skirt, extended into a chapel length train. Her godmother's heirloom, a full-length Brussels lace mantilla, completed the wedding outfit. She carried a bouquet of ivory roses and wore the bridegroom's gift of pearls.

The maid of honor wore a pale blue organza gown, with a back panel which fell from the shoulders. She carried a bouquet of blue and white daisies. The two bridesmaids wore similar gowns of pale yellow, and carried yellow and white daisies. All three girls wore wreaths of ivy.

THE FLOWER girls were dressed in pale blue and yellow organza dresses and carried nosegays of daisies.

After a trip to northern Michigan, the young couple will live in Birmingham.

Gay Parties Galore Color Summer Fun

BY MARTI CAHN

Susan Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott of Birmingham, and Fred Howling, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Howling also of Birmingham, married June 27 at the Holy Name Church.

Parties in honor of the bride-elect began with a linen shower given by Mrs. Victor W. Canover, Mrs. Robert Cadwell and daughter, Mrs. Charles Lipsett of Comstock Park. They were co-hostesses with a luncheon and kitchen shower given at the Orchard Lake Country Club.

ELIZABETH BURROUGHS, bridesmaid and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Burroughs of Hamilton Road, Bloomfield Village, entertained with an evening barbecue—a mixed affair for Susan and Fred who received gifts intended for party giving.

Mrs. Russell Richardson and daughter, Diane, another bridesmaid, entertained at their home on Chesterfield with a buffet supper and miscellaneous shower.

On Friday Mrs. John Albertson of Tarry Lane, Bloomfield Hills, honored Susan with a luncheon at the Orchard Lake Country Club, and Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Howling gave the rehearsal dinner at the Oakland Hills Country Club.

SUSAN WILDER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Wilder of Hamilton Road, gave a "People Party" last Saturday.

We called Sue to ask "What do people do at a people party?" Her immediate answer was, "Have fun, of course!"

Sixteen Kingswood School Cranbrook classmates enjoyed lunch at the Oakland Hills Country Club after which they returned to the Wilder's home for record playing, card games and girl-talk.

INVITATIONS to a "Coke-tail Open House" party were in the form of miniature Mortar Boards. Claudia Coyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Coyer, Jr., was hostess to fellow members of the 1964 class of Marian High School.

Claudia's "Coke-tail" party preceded the senior prom which was held at the Raleigh House in Detroit.

BIRMINGHAM residents of two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Ross of Taunton Street, entertained on Sunday with a party for their daughter, Deborah Ann, who celebrated her first birthday.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bol, parents of Mrs. Ross of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Jr., and their year-old daughter, Ann Elizabeth, of Cincinnati; Mr. and Mrs. George Ross, Sr., also of Cincinnati and Mrs. Joseph Dostal of Royal Oak.

OAKLAND HILLS Country Club was the setting for Mr. and Mrs. Jack J. Rinehart to celebrate their 33rd wedding anniversary on June 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. C. Boyd Stockmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison W. Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schmitt, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Paylor joined the Rineharts at the summer formal dinner dance.

MR. AND MRS. ROBERT W. Muhlntner of Birmingham drove to Ann Arbor Monday for an extra special occasion—a dinner party to celebrate the birth of their first grandchild and to exchange congratulations with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel MacMillan, maternal grandparents of Bronxville, N.Y.

Eric David Muhlntner, born June 1th, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Robert Muhlntner. Mr. Muhlntner, a graduate of Seaholm High School, is now attending law school at the University of Michigan.
