MRS. SHERRIFF

Mrs. Sherriff Is Honored By Red Cross

Ethel (Mrs. George) Sherriff, dynamic head of Red Cross Grey Ladies at Pontiac State Hospital, has retired after five years of service as coordinator and chairman of the group.

Beloved by all who worked with her, Mrs. Sherriff was honored June 30 at a tea given in the Nurses' home at the hospital, with Grey Ladies and members of the hospital staff the hosts.

Committee for the tea was headed by Mrs. Helen Humphrey, assisted by Mrs. Ruby Eargle and Mrs. Eleanor McCurry.

ALSO HONORED were Mrs. Wayne (Kathleen) Smith of W. Bloomfield Township, who will succeed Mrs. Sherriff; Donald C. Millar, executive director of the Oakland County Red Cross, and Mrs. W. C. Sproull of Birmingham, Oakland County chairman of Grey Ladies.

Mrs. Smith pointed out that under Mrs. Sherriff's leadership, the Grey Lady group (including many members from the Birmingham-Bloomfield area) has grown to a membership of over 100 well trained workers.

WHEN THE ST. REGIS Altar Society reconvenes in September it will have as its president Mrs. August Larson.

Other officers will be first vice-president, Mrs. Frank Kent; second vice-president Mrs. James B. O'Sullivan; recording secretary, Mrs. James Tully; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Joseph Draxel; and treasurer, Mrs. Harry Hall.

ALL RESIDENTS of the Meadowdale area are invited to attend an annual meeting which is to be held on Monday, July 13 on Anchor Island, a spot in the midst of the subdivision.

FATHERS WITH station wagons were on call when the boys of Scout Troop 1066 left June 27 to spend a week at the D-Bar-A Ranch.

Boys are prone to travel more lightly than girls but in spite of it the wagons were filled with bedrolls and knapsacks in addition to camping equipment. Forty-five boys answered the roll call as campers and were chaperoned by the proper number of dads.

Have You Met

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Meyer of 17310 Kinross Road, Beverly Hills? They have a small daughter, Patricia Jean, and their other hobbies are hunting, fishing and skiing. Mr. Meyer is a building superintendent for Englehardt, Buettner and Holt.

THE MAPLEBROOK Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association, who held its final meeting of the year at Cummington Park on May 27 also had their election of officers at that time. Ready to take the reins as president is Mrs. Carl Roth. Mrs. Thomas Loring is their vice-president while Mrs. George Webb will act as Secretary and Mrs. R. W. Layland as Treasurer.

JUNE 20 was a day to remember in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cook of Breckenridge Lane. Their daughter, Sister Helen Ashbory who has been in the Dominican Order of Sisters and who has been teaching in the Southern Province for the past 11 years, was able to spend several hours at home with her parents. She was to report to the Mother House in Adria before being reassigned to her teaching post for the next school year and will then be at St. Paul's in Gross Pointe.

To round out the family picture their son-in-law, Dr. Richard Beck, arrived to spend the week end and to gather up his wife, Nancy, and daughter Rachel, before moving to Kirksville, Mo., where he will be practicing medicine.

WHEN A SLATE of officers is presented and accepted as read it's a good indication that the nominating committee has done a fine job.

Mrs. Raymond Reid was re-elected president of the Westchester Women's Club when at the annual meeting and election of officers in May at the Glen Oaks Country Club.

Other officers are vice-president, Mrs. G. P. Davey, Jr.; secretary, Mrs. Ralph Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Starr; newsletter, Mrs. Lawrence Salter.

Parliamentarian, Mrs. Denton Hassell; membership, Mrs. Richard B. Mangrove; hospitality, Mrs. Winston L. Terrie; telephone chairman, Mrs. George Tomecek; youth activities chairman, Mrs. George Merritt; bridge chairman, Mrs. John Rawley; and past president and nominating committee chairman, Mrs. I. Robert Mease.

The following women were elected to lead their groups within their categories by the women who are members of the groups, ladies bowling president, Mrs. Dale Grovert; couples bowling president, Mrs. Robert Hebert; art, Mrs. Richard B. Mangrove; social services, Mrs. Ben Franklin; and needlework, Mrs. Robert Hallyer.

PETER MOORE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Moore of S. Clunbury certainly didn't find employment for the summer in his own back yard.

Peter who is a senior at Michigan State University traveled all the way to Oxford, England, where he found work at the Randolph Hotel. In the meantime he is attending the National Scouting Jamboree, to be held in Pennsylvania this summer.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES Howarth of Greenwich have returned home with their two daughters, Nancy and Carolyn, from Washington D.C., where they attended the graduation exercises of Georgetown University.

Their son James, Jr., was graduated with a bachelor of science degree in foreign service. He plans to begin law school in the fall at the University of Detroit. While in the east the family stayed at the International Inn. This year marked the 175th anniversary of Georgetown.

Stockinger-Brown

Mr. and Mrs. Kingsley M. Brown of Bloomfield Hills announce the June 21 marriage of their daughter, Jeanne Gygi, to Paul Leonard Stockinger. The couple was married in Pompano Beach, Fla.
