LATHRUP - CRANBROOK VILLAGE

Golden Year Brightened; Family, Friends Celebrate

GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

Congratulations are in order (at least 50 of them) for Mr. and Mrs. Francis Waldeck of Lathrup Village, who celebrated their golden anniversary recently.

The couple was married June 16, 1914, in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Chicago, Ill. The Waldecks have four children, Francis of Brillion, Wis., Gerald, Marjorie and Evelyn, and eight grandchildren.

TWO OF THE WALDECKER grandsons, Mark and James, were altar boys for the anniversary mass which took place recently at St. Bede's Catholic Church with the Rev. Cyril J. Keating, pastor of St. Bede's, as celebrant.

A breakfast followed the mass at Dearborn Inn, and an open house reception was held at the Waldeck residence on Lathrup Blvd. in the evening for relatives and friends.

Out of town guests who attended the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman and Mrs. Harvey Weber of Wilmette, Ill.; Mrs. Clarence Braun of Des Plaines, Ill.; the Arthur Brauns of Morton Grove, Ill.; and the Rev. Robert Jordan of Hanover, Ontario.

IT WILL BE A "members only" brunch on July 12 at the Cranbrook Country Club. The members will sit pool-side and enjoy icy cantalope and hot pancakes and sausage.

In charge of the affair is Mrs. James Bolling. She will be assisted by Mrs. Henry C. Kantor and Mrs. K. W. Pfister.

The club will hold its first swim meet of the season today.

RETURNING TO THEIR Autumn Lane home over the July 4 week and after a three-week motor trip through the West were the Farrell Binders. They were accompanied by their children, Bill, Debbie and Cindy who celebrated her 13th birthday on June 27 en route.

Points of interest enjoyed by the family were the Grand Canyon, Las Angeles, San Francisco, China Town, Disneyland and Knotts Berry Farm.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD Prynor of Northgate Drive have returned home after a two-week tour of Ontario and Quebec by car.

Also touring the country, but in a different locale, is Sue Orsargos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Orsargos of Creek Drive, Sue, and the three teachers with whom she is traveling, will take in the New York Fair and tour Hyannis Port among other points of interest.

WHEN SELECTING A GIFT select one that you like, and the recipient will most surely like it—so the saying goes. In particular case, it all came true.

Jim Cannon, Sr., of Fall River Drive, received a tape recorder for Father's Day and was having so much fun with it the family decided to get another one for their son, Major James Cannon, Jr., as a graduation gift.

Major Cannon and his family, who have now left for a three-year assignment in Hawaii, are anticipating the exchange of tapes as are the senior Cannons.

JOINING THE RANKS of graduates from MSB is Louise Coury, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Coury of Autumn Lane. Louise recently received her B.A. degree and will be teaching in the Berkeley School system this fall.

The Bloomfield Beach and Boat Club was the scene for Jack Bryan's 17th birthday celebration last week end. Jack is the son of Dr. and Mrs. John Bryan of Rock Creek Drive.

Among the 30 teen-agers who gathered at the club to help Jack celebrate were Ron LeCom, Judy M. O'Brien, Chris Bauer, Jim Yager, Kurt Pfister, Diane Kenzik, Bev Bryan and George Yates.

Have You Met Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Muslemian of Wing Lake Road, Delta of Bloomfield? They moved from Dallas, Tex. to Michigan a short time ago with their children, Jon, 6, Susan, 5, and Brian, 3. Mr. Muslemian, who is a graduate of Indiana Technical College, is associated with Ling-Temco-Vought. Both Mr. and Mrs. Muslemian enjoy playing bridge and the Muslemian family building models very relaxing.

Local 'People' Group Given Nat'l Charter

Climaxing two months of organizing, the Birmingham-Bloomfield chapter of the People to People program will be formally recognized by the national organization this Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Magnus von Braun will entertain the local group with an Italian picnic supper at their Totthill Road home in Bloomfield Township.

Special guests at the dinner will be John Lindeman from the national office in Kansas City. He will present the group with their charter and speak on the goals, activities and horizons of the People to People program here and throughout the world.

Lindeman will also be the guest of honor at a 10 a.m. office meeting at the Aspen Road home of Mrs. Vaskey Nahabedian. In anticipation of coming guests, Mrs. Nahabedian will follow an Italian theme in her serving decor.

AT NOON, Lindeman will speak to the Birmingham Rotary Club on the topic of People to People program.

At the June 10 meeting at the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Leonard, officers and chairmen for the group were appointed.

They are Mrs. Vaskey Nahabedian, president; James Rae, first vice president; Edward Baggerly, second vice president; Mrs. James Rae, treasurer; Mrs. Peter Kallinik, coordinating secretary; and George Reed, corresponding secretary.

APPOINTED CHAIRMAN were Mrs. Sherman LeMessurier, hospitality; Mrs. Stanley W. Connelly, publicity; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. Magnus von Braun, hosting; Bruce Nettie, membership; Edward McGowan, sports; Mr. and Mrs. James Low, magazines for friendship; Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts, university project; Mrs. Isaac Ross, letter exchange; Nancy Stockwell, historian; Nancy Nahabedian, volunteer school project; and Mrs. Edward McGowan, photographer.

Also at that meeting, two Russian students were hosted while they told of their experiences and background.

The Birmingham-Bloomfield chapter will join the Clawson People to People group to entertain a group of 58 Italian school teachers from both chapters who will house the guests during their stay, slated from June 16-18.

After an absence of almost a half century, an old-fashioned grandfather clock was again in the possession of the Baldwin family in 1963.

When Thomas Baldwin in 1836 found himself in a new country with a large family and very little money, he sold a family clock to John W. Hunter.

He received in exchange two wooden clocks, very acceptable timepieces in those days and $30 in cash.

Time passed, and John Hunter gave the clock to Alonzo Snow, his son-in-law, who prized it highly. The old-fashioned clock ticked off the minutes, hours and years in the Snow home.

JAMES BALDWIN of Ovid, a son of Thomas and a brother of John Baldwin, the local blacksmith, yearned for the old family timepiece and tried many times to buy it back.

Snow was very reluctant to part with the clock because of its reliability, its antiquity and because it was a gift from Hunter.

When James Baldwin came to Birmingham in 1883 to visit his brother John, he tried once more to buy the clock from Snow.

Finally Snow said, "See here, I will take a piece of paper what I will take for the clock. You write on another piece of paper what you are willing to pay. But in no case will I take a cent more or less than I mark. I just want to see how much you are willing to give."

Both made their figures and Snow's paper read $25. Baldwin's $80. So the old grandfather clock returned to the family of the owner, and it has been safely from England 47 years before.

David E. Davis, the old-Master Joiner, has hoisted anchor and sailed into a larger port. Much as I hated to leave my snug harbor at 332 Hamilton, increased demand for my goods and services made it impossible for me to remain moored to so small a dock.

In my new location at 4312 North Woodward (just South of 14 Mile Road) I offer a much larger selection of fine antiques and authentic reproductions. My service operation has been expanded so that I can handle a greater number of pieces for repair or refinishing... and of course I will continue to handcraft fine furniture to order.
