

Miss Hoey Weds James F. Menzel

At a 4 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon in Christ Church Cranbrook, Deborah Fitzsimmons Hoey and James Frederick Menzel exchanged marriage vows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hoey of Bloomfield Hills (he is headmaster at Cranbrook School) and her husband's parents are the Frederick Menzels of Midland.

The Rev. John H. Albrecht officiated at the service, which was followed by a reception in the Hoey home.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE

by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza highlighted by appliques of venise lace. The same lace trimmed the organza circlet which secured her veil of French illusion and she carried Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Leo Wolgast of Dearborn Heights was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Anthony Morse of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Robert Crawford of Birmingham. They were all gowned in azure blue linen sheaths, wore demi-hats of deep blue bachelor buttons and carried bouquets of the same flowers combined with daisies and ivy.

Mark L. Menzel of Denver, Colo., was his brother's best man, and seating the guests were James O. Friel of Detroit; Philip A. Doyle of Ferndale; Robert W. Crawford of Birmingham and Kenneth B. Block of St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Hoey greeted her guests at the reception in an Alpine blue linen sheath and Mrs. Menzel was in yellow embroidered organza.

FOLLOWING A TRIP to Florida and a Caribbean cruise, the newlyweds will make their home in Ann Arbor.

The bride is a graduate of Kingswood School, Stephens College and the University of Michigan. The bridegroom is also a graduate of the University of Michigan, receiving his master's degree from the University of Arizona.

MRS. R. B. INNES

Groom Claims Bride in Detroit

Robert Burns Innes claimed Sharon Lee Munn as his bride at candlelight services July 11 at Holy Communion Church in Detroit.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rankin Munn Jr. of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donald Innes of 655 Greenwood, Birmingham.

The bride selected a Bianchi gown of white georgette fashioned with a detachable train of peau de soie. A band of peau de soie circled the fitted bodice and created an Empire effect, while the bodice was embroidered with pearls and crystal beads.

TIERED BANDS of beaded peau de soie held a bouffant veil of imported silk illusion, and she carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Kathleen Munn, sister of the bride, was chosen as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Margaret Geschke of Detroit, Judith Jewett of Grosse Pointe Woods, Mrs. Thomas Hess of Port Huron and Mrs. David Poole of East Lansing.

John Meeks of Dearborn served as best man. Ushers were Patrick Byrne of Grand Lodge, James Stiffer and Walter Switzer of Saginaw and James Tropea of Detroit.

The couple will be at home in East Lansing where the groom will work on his master of arts degree at Michigan State University.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Is Marked

On June 23 Dr. and Mrs. Myron Zbudowski, 889 Bloomcrest, Bloomfield Hills, were honored on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary at a surprise party given by their two daughters, Luanne and Alice.

Decorations included white wedding bells, pink and white roses and a handmade bride and groom backed by a large silver numeral, twenty-five. Two large floral arrangements of pink and white carnations and silver candlesticks complemented the silver and white cloth on the refreshment table.

Guests attending were Dr. and Mrs. Henry Dawkins of Royal Oak; Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Crowley and Mr. and Mrs. John Cowen of Bloomfield Hills; Mr. and Mrs. John Plautz of Grosse Ile; Mrs. Anna Terhardt and Mrs. Anne Heusel of Grosse Pointe Park; Mr. and Mrs. John Crowden, Mrs. Blanche Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Reese and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kierpaal of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. C. Maciejewski of Centerline; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Molotky of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Molotky of Warren; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Molotky of Dearborn; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Molotky of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Molotky of Madison Heights.

Mrs. Blunt Returns From Trip East

Mrs. Loren O. Blunt of W. Lincoln Road, Birmingham, recently returned from a two weeks' trip to New York and Boston. While in New York she was the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyer of Garden City.

In Boston she attended the graduation of her nephew, Philip Meyer, from Curry College. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Adaline Haslam of Dundee, N.Y.

Truth Told

Professor and Mrs. Herbert Franklin Layle of Riverside Drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane Louise, to David Bodle Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Jackson of Pittsburgh, Pa., formerly of Birmingham. The bride-elect is a graduate of Seaholm High School and is a senior at the University of Michigan, where she is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Her fiancé, also a graduate of Seaholm, attends U-M where he is in the School of Dentistry. No wedding date has been set.
