

Garden Reception Follows Ceremony

United by the same minister, who married the bride's parents 27 years ago were Deborah DuVall and David Bruce Parker at candlelight services July 11 at the Franklin Community Church.

Dr. Edward W. Wilcox performed the double-ring ceremonies, assisted by Rev. Raymond A. Fenner.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Clair DuVall of back. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Wearing identical gowns were the bridesmaids: Dawn Hayden of Waterford, Carol Park of Union Lake, sister of the groom; Deborah Bartlett, junior bridesmaid from Birmingham. They carried yellow carnations.

FLOWER GIRL Sara Bartlett of Birmingham, was gowned in white and carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Richard Parker, the groom's brother, served as best man. Ushers were Owen C. DuVall, the bride's brother, Roger Myers and Rex Bennett.

Torches lit the way to the garden reception, held at the home of the bride's parents.

For their trip to Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, Va. and Virginia Beach, the bride wore a turquoise silk sheath with a matching mohair jacket.

The couple will be at home in Lawton, Okla., where the groom is stationed in the U.S. Army.

CHANTILLY LACE encrusted with seed pearls decorated the bodice of the bride's silk organza floor-length gown. Matching lace appliques were also used on the floor-length skirt and floating back panels which swept into a chapel train.

The scooped neckline featured the single strand of cultured pearls worn by the bride, a gift from the groom. Her French illusion veil was secured by a Dior bow, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Flying to Birmingham from the University of North Carolina was the maid of honor, Nancy X. Riegan of 10124 Lecherb, Birmingham. She wore a powder blue over tulle gown designed with an A-line skirt and wattleau

Niagara Falls Trip Follows B'ham Rites

A wedding trip to Niagara Falls, N. Y. followed the marriage of Linda Elaine Benford and Ronald L. Beesley on July 11 at double-ring services at the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Benford, 2664 Rambling Way, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Beesley, 2702 N. Pontiac Trail, Walling Lake.

Chantilly lace highlighted the bride's gown, which also featured sequins enhancing the scalloped neckline and lined lace skirt. A chapel train completed the bridal gown.

MAID OF HONOR, Pamela Benford of Bloomfield Hills, wore a street-length powder blue gown with an overskirt. In her hair was a blue organza bow trimmed with daisies, and she carried a crescent bouquet of daisies.

Wearing identical costumes were the bridesmaids: Patricia Beesley of Birmingham, Glenda Beesley of Walled Lake and Nancy Barnes of Roseville.

Thomas Beesley of Birmingham served as best man. Ushers were Richard McCullough of Royal Oak, William Wright of Birmingham and Donald Beesley of Walled Lake.

A home reception followed the ceremony. The newlyweds will make their home in Royal Oak.

Autumn Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sisson of Mexico City, formerly of Bloomfield Village, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Lynne, to Glenn Crawl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becker of Bethlehem, Pa. Miss Sisson is a graduate of Seaholm High School and attends Michigan State University where her fiancé is also a student. A September wedding is planned.

LaMotte-Farrell Rites Solemnized

Kathleen Mary Farrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Farrell of Tuckahoe Road, Bloomfield Village, spoke her marriage vows Saturday morning to Kenneth Joseph LaMotte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell LaMotte of Beverly Road, Birmingham.

The ceremony was solemnized in Holy Name Church, after which a reception was given at the Birmingham Country Club.

turquoise daisies and pink carnations.

THE BRIDE wore a silk organza sheath for her wedding, fashioned with kabuchi sleeves edged in venise lace and a detachable chapel train which fell from a tailored flat bow at the back. Her veil of French silk illusion was secured to a petal spray of organza, and she carried a crescent bouquet of carnations and Eucharist lilies.

Mrs. William Bray of Dearborn Heights (the former Patricia Langley of Birmingham, was matron of honor, and bridesmaids included Mrs. Timothy Springer of Grand Rapids (the former Sandra Voss of Birmingham), Anne Clark of Grosse Pointe, Mary Jo Carney of Dearborn and Kathleen Crone of Shaker Heights, O.

They all wore floor-length gowns of pink linen and carried pink baskets holding sprays of

WILLIAM BRAY was best man, and seating the guests were Edwin Casenhiser of Franklin; Terry Schoenitz of Bloomfield Hills; Joseph Heimbuch of Detroit and Bob LaMotte, brother of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the reception, the couple left on a trip to Europe. They will be at home in Ann Arbor the last of August.

Halls Spend Two Weeks Seeing Sights in Calif.

By ELLIE BLAUMAN

MI 7-1465

Mr. and Mrs. Cap Hall of Kenosha Circle have returned from a two-week trip to the West Coast where they took two of their children sightseeing.

Randy, 11, and Claudia, 9, visited many of the tourist attractions in and around Los Angeles and San Francisco, including Disneyland, Chinatown, and Yosemite, as well as spending some time with friends and relatives.

The Halls rode a vistadome train to Denver then flew to Chicago where they visited Mrs. Hall's parents, the Guy Vaasburgs, before returning to Beverly Hills.

SEVERAL INDIAN Guides and their dads met at the Brunk residence on Kenosway Court last Wednesday evening to attend a cookout given by "little brave" Wilfred Brunk, whose leg is still in a cast from an accident earlier this year, and his brother Andrew.

Young guests included Tom and Bobby Stewart, Randy Hall, Mike and Steve Kuni, and Peter Gordon.

Camille Brunk, a June graduate of Groves, has been to New York to see the fair and is now visiting relatives in Mansfield, La.

Ruth Brunk, 15, has returned from Peacham Academy in Vermont and after a summer at home, plans to attend Bloomfield Country Day School in September.

MR. AND MRS. Harold Moloney of White Oaks Trail took Ann, Larry, and Kathy to New York for the first time where they spent some time at the Fair enjoying the exhibits. The Moloneys also took the children on a tour of the city before flying home.

Mrs. Edward J. Hill, Sr. of Kirkshire Road has returned from Point Clark, Ont., where she entertained the Robert Howells, Mrs. Florence White, and the Deas, Browns and their son Larry at her cottage for one week.

THE DANIEL L. Whites of Devonshire Road had a welcome home guest recently—Marilyn's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Jackson of Abington, Pa., who returned home last week after a three-week visit.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Andrews of Red Oaks Trail who celebrated their 23rd wedding anniversary last Friday. Relatives joined in the celebration at the Andrews home on Thursday evening.

MR. AND MRS. William E. Devine of Vernon Drive had as recent week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hands and their five children who were en route to Chicago where they have just been transferred. Mrs. Hands is the Devines' daughter, Shirley.

Their son, Fr. Donald T. Devine, has been sent to Boston College where he is working toward his master's degree in Latin.
