Pocono Mts. Honeymoon Planned by A. P. Gollob

A double-ring ceremony at St. Columban Church, Birmingham, united Joyce Lenore Dyki and Albert Paul Gollob on July 11 at 10 a.m.
Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Victor J. Dyki, 1417 Melton, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. John Gollob of Detroit.
The bride wore a Bianchi imported silk organza gown, its bodice and rumberbund encrusted with chantilly lace and seed pearls. A large rose secured the sash and accented the controlled skirt. Her imported illusion veil was held by a lace and beaded pillbox.

MRS. A. P. GOLLOB

WEARING WHITE embroidered gowns over pink taffeta were the bridal attendants. Mary Przekonska of Utica, served as maid of honor, with Valerie Purcott, Barbara Wasilewski, Rosemary Konegal of Detroit, Nancy Krzyzanski of Warren and Jeanne Stottelmeyer of Clawson as bridesmaids. Flower girl was Sheila Campbell. They all carried baskets of pink carnations.
Serving as best man was John Gollob Jr. Ushers were Arthur Gollob, Richard Hurst, James Lasky, Bruce Farrell, Robert Dyki, Paul Polodnik of Detroit; Lee Czegus of Warren, Donald Saunders of Huntington Woods. Terry Czegus served as ring bearer.
Honeymoon destination for the newlyweds is the Pocono Mountains in Pa.

Doe Derby Is Played At Oakland

A shotgun blast started 44 well trained fillies off and running on the fairways of Oakland Hills golf course Friday at 9 a.m.
The event was the women golfers annual Doe Derby Day, which is a handicap best-ball tournament.
It was a dead heat finish with two teams tied at 68. A three hole play-off resulted with the win position going to Denise (one to catch) Vinton; Clara (bred to win) Carolin; Dottie (overdue) Beltz, and Kathleen (first starter) Barb; runners from Vinton's White and Green Stables.

PLACE POSITION went to the entry from Bauer's Purple and Gold Stables who were Ann (training fast) Bauer; Jo (wake-up speed) Kinney; Gen (stretch runner) Hodgson, and Helen (overdue-can do) Bennett. From Bullock's Black and Gold Stables, in for show, were Jan (been a footer) Bullock; Fran (top form) Rich; Madeleine (good mudder) Matthews, and Marge (speedy contender) Kuckelman.

The Post and Paddock Club (the club's ballroom) was the setting for the victory celebration, buffet luncheon and prize awards.
Committee chairman Suzie (Mrs. Gary B.) Hogan was assisted by Bobby (Mrs. Robert D.) Rowan, Mary (Mrs. Kirk) Horgan, Norma (Mrs. B. Kenneth) Sander, Helen (Mrs. Harry A.) Williams and Joan (Mrs. Seymour) Eaton.

Turnabout

One of the most attractive couples in showbusiness, and certainly among the most successful, are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cassidy. She is the beautiful oscar-winning movie star, Shirley Jones, and he is currently co-starring on the Broadway stage with Carol Burnett in "Fade out-Fade in." Jack is acknowledged to be one of today's best-dressed men, and that brings us to the news-paragraph: In their home, Jack has five closets for his clothes; Shirley has three. When they travel, Jack has six pieces of luggage; Shirley has four! How about that!

Clipped Wings Gives Check

The Detroit Chapter of Clipped Wings, United Air Line stewardesses alumnae association, has presented a $500 check to the Detroit Association for Retarded Children. The presentation was the result of the "Fashions in Flight" fund-raising event held May 27.

Making the presentation for Clipped Wings were Mrs. Richard Reid of Birmingham, president; Mrs. Robert Barger of Howell, treasurer, and Mrs. James Taggart of Grosse Pointe Woods, project chairman. John J. Morier, executive director of the Detroit Association for Retarded Children received the contribution.

Clipped Wings adopted retarded children as a nation-wide philanthropy in 1952. There are 23 chapters across the nation representing most major cities who donate fund-raising proceeds to their local chapters for retarded children and to the National Association for Retarded Children Research Fund.

Always on Sunday!

Sunday evening, which used to be a time for donning the smoking jacket and slippers and maintaining close proximity to the home fires, has gradually become one of the week's big "nights out!" It isn't exactly clear why this is so. But, the change has taken place and so, too, has the dressing trend. People never wore formal clothes on Sunday night in the old days—but now, especially in the major cities, it is getting to be the rule rather than the exception.
