By GLORIA JESSUP
MA 6-3257

It was a happy reunion of sisters when Mrs. B. W. Walker of Pacific, E. Oakland, Calif., returned to Michigan after an eight-year absence.

She has been spending the month dividing her time between her sister, Mrs. E. D. Mansfield of San Quentin Drive and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fleming at their summer home in Lewistown, Mich.

The Raymond Ebbings are back home on Autumn Lane after spending about 10 days at the family cottage at Caseville, Ala. Accompanying their parents were Raymond, 5, John, 3, and twins, Billy and David, 1 1/2.

The Ebbings are to be commended for their wonderful will power. Although the weather was wonderful and they were having a grand time they cut a few days off their vacation to return home to do some painting.

THE ROBERT Olivers, formerly of Northgate, have been transferred to Milwaukee, Wis. Before their departure, Mrs. Ebbing gave her neighbor, Mrs. Oliver, a bon voyage supper party.

Attending the ladies-only event were Mrs. William Crick, Mrs. James Harris, Mrs. Rodney Crawford and Mrs. Dick Paynter.

Carol is a student at Southfield High School and is a member of the Youth For Understanding program under the direction of the Council of Churches. She is staying with Mrs. Aila Faranko and her daughter, Annamaja.

THE TEEN-agers recently took over the Village Swim Club for a hotteutanny. The hungry crew consumed 50 pizzas, 400 glasses of pop and danced to the music of the Winchester "4".

Saturday evening the members will partake of a steak roast with dancing following.

Have you met the new residents at 29782 Spring River? They are Mr. and Mrs. George Al Fink, formerly of South Bend, Ind. The Finks have three children. They are Glenn, 15, Linda, 13 and Joanne, 10. Mr. Fink is associated with IBM Corp.

THE SOUTHFIELD Optimist Club will meet this evening, July 16, at the Howard Johnson's Restaurant at 10 Mile and North-western at 6:30 p.m. Guest speakers will be Robert and Norman Ziegelman of Ziegelman and Ziegelman Architects of Birmingham.

They are members of the Civic Design Commission, a subcommittee of the Birmingham Citizens Action Committee. Mr. Norman Ziegelman is also a member of the Southfield Beautification Committee.

The topic of their speech is entitled "Civic Design Study for Birmingham Central Business District."

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a fitted ivory peau de soie. Her fitted cap of pleated illusion and orange blossoms attached to a fingertip veil was worn by her mother. She carried a bouquet of white roses, orchids, stephanotis and ivy.
